The Mill Operatives Reported

I. W. W. Official in Lawrence Says
No Orders Have Been Issued to Workers in This City

Contrary to the reports in circulation in this city yesterday that there would be trouble at the local mills this morning, all the operatives went to their work and there was no semblance of any disorder. Supt. Welch, however, was prepared for any emergency and had his officers ready to be sent to any section of the city.

About two hundred members of the I. W. W. in this city went to Lawrence yesterday, to participate in the parade there, and upon their return, rumor had it that they would refuse to go to their work here today, but the strikers evidently had no foundation, for all went into the mills and continued to work during the day.

In the local party that went to Lawrence yesterday morning, there were a great many children, the latter wearing white dresses, with red sashes, bearing the inscription "I. W. W." They returned in the evening, and while very enthusiastic, caused no trouble.

In conversation with several of the local mill men this morning, the writer learned that there was no disorder and all the operatives went to their work and continued at their machines, apparently contented.

One of the mill men said that he did not expect any trouble, saying that the real disturbers are no longer connected with his mill, and that all his employees are now people who are satisfied with the prevailing conditions. He said that during the last trouble he went to the strikers and informed them that if they went out they would not be taken back.

They ignored his ultimatum, but have since regretted their action, he said. They were not reinstated, and the mill man said that the other employees, who were always law abiding, but were dictated to by the self-elected labor leaders, are now getting along without any fears or trouble.

Other mill men said that their help were satisfied with conditions and no trouble was anticipated. One said that a great many of his employees who were connected with labor organizations during the last controversy, are no longer members and are now opposed to the teachings of some of the leaders, to whom they heretofore paid considerable attention.

Business in the local mills at the present time is very good, all working full time while several are running overtime. The outlook for the winter is very good, and all are sufficiently supplied with orders to continue through the cold months.

The new addition being erected to the Appleton mill is progressing and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year. The new building extends from the Appleton to the Hamilton four stories high and is of brick construction. When finished new machinery will be installed.

WOMAN STRIKER ARRESTED IN COMMON STREET, LAWRENCE, FOR THROWING STONE AT A PATROLMAN EARLY THIS MORNING

LAWRENCE, Sept. 30.—Serious rioting marked the beginning of the 24 hours' general strike of Industrial Workers of the World as a protest against the imprisonment of Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, leaders of the organization, whose trial on a charge of murder began at Salem today. Of the 30,000 textile operatives employed in the mills of this city 12,000 were estimated to be idle by 9 a. m. Of this number 7000 were members of the Industrial Workers of the World, while the others had either remained away from the mills through fear of personal injury or had left because there was no work in their departments.

When the mills opened at 6:45 a. m. there were numerous conflicts between intending workers and pickets. Essex street, the main thoroughfare of the city through or across which thousands of operatives walk on their way to their work, was lined with the pickets of the Industrial Workers. Many were armed and a quantity of revolvers and knives were confiscated by the police. Some of these weapons were so new that the price tags had not been removed.

Many persons were hurt during the disturbances, but in most instances the injuries were not serious. One man who was knocked off a street car by a crowd of pickets was said to be in a serious condition at a hospital.

Although most of the trouble occurred at the mill opening time there were numerous minor outbreaks during the forenoon. Many of the rioters were arrested.

were saved, for the defendants on the court's ruling.

Judge Quinn refused a request of counsel for delay that the court ask prospective jurors questions in addition to those prescribed by statute before allowing them to take their places in the jury box. The statute questions had to do with relationship with the defendants, as to whether an opinion had been formed and whether the feelings of the jurors under examination were such as to preclude a verdict of guilty where the verdict might bring about the death of a defendant.

Christian W. Hanson, a Bayfield hair dresser, was the first juror to be selected. He was the second juror, having examined James A. Hanson of Andover, a auditor having expressed himself as opposed to capital punishment, and Charles C. Phillips, a Lynn electrician, failing to respond to his name.

BULGARIAN ARMY

To Be Mobilized Because Cabinet Desires To Be Prepared For Any Danger

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 29.—The mobilization of the Bulgarian army was proclaimed by the government today.

The action was taken in consequence of alarming news received here as to the concentration of large forces of Turkish troops in the neighborhood of Adrianople and along the Bulgarian frontier.

The Bulgarian cabinet desired to be prepared for any eventuality that might arise.

GOVERNOR MARSHALL

To Address Rally in This City Tonight

A grand democratic rally will be held this evening in Associate hall at 8 o'clock and a number of prominent speakers have been induced to address the gathering. This rally promises to be one of the largest and most largely attended of the year. Among those who will be heard are: Gov. Thomas Riley Marshall, of Indiana, democratic candidate for vice president; Gov. Eugene Foss, of Massachusetts, Judge Thomas P. Riley, chairman of the state committee, Humphrey O'Sullivan, democratic candidate for congress in the 5th district, Hon. David I. Walsh, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor and Hon. John P. Fitzgerald, mayor of Boston. James F. Miskella will preside over the gathering.

JOSEPH J. ETTOR AND GIOVANNITTI

Were Placed on Trial in the Superior Court at Salem
This Afternoon

SALEM, Sept. 30.—Three hundred and fifty possible jurors crowded the Essex county courthouse this morning to the exclusion of all others except attorneys and newspapermen when the trial of Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, Industrial Workers of the World leaders, and Joseph Caruso, a millworker, was called.

The three men are charged with being concerned in the alleged murder of Anna Lopizzo during the great textile strike in Lawrence last January. Caruso was a principal and Ettor and Giovannitti as accessories before the fact. The panel of talesmen was the largest ever summoned for a capital case in this country and the superior courtroom was not big enough to hold them all.

Fred W. Hazelwood of Portland, Ore. (counsel for the defense, stated last night that the first step today would be the filing of a motion with Judge Joseph F. Quinn for the discharge of the entire venire on the ground that in many instances names were illegally drawn. Arguments on this question were expected to consume considerable time.

PROGRESSIVE LEADERS

Plan Series of Whirlwind Tours

The progressive party leaders have just about completed plans for a series of whirlwind tours of the state that will start the presidential campaign going in earnest in Massachusetts the latter part of this week.

They will open their campaign with a big rally in Tremont Temple Thursday night.

Early Friday morning, Charles Sumner Bird, the Bull Moose candidate for governor, will start on a long tour of the state.

Mr. Bird will be accompanied by at least two other members of the state ticket, former District Attorney Arthur D. Hill, and others.

He will start in the eastern part of the state and work westward.

The following day or possibly a week from tomorrow, Daniel Cosgrove of Lowell, the "Bull Moose" candidate for lieutenant governor and a second "team" of "Bull Moose" will start out.

Those of the progressive party state ticket who don't go with the third party will be attached to the Cosgrove contingent.

The second "team" will start in the western part of the state and work eastward.

In the meantime the "Moose" plan to organize thoroughly in the Boston congressional districts.

TAKT TO MEET MARSHALL

At a Masonic Banquet Next Wednesday

BEVERLY, Sept. 30.—Having made the acquaintance of the head of the democratic presidential ticket, President Taft now expects to shake hands and exchange political gossip with Gov. Marshall of Indiana, candidate for vice president.

According to the announcement here last night the meeting will take place next Wednesday night at the same hotel in Boston where the president met Gov. Woodrow Wilson several days ago. Both the president and Gov. Marshall are to be guests at a banquet that night of the supreme council, 33d degree, Scottish Rite Masons for the northern jurisdiction of the United States.

The Masonic banquet will be the third engagement of the day for the president. In the afternoon Mr. Taft will lay the corner stone of a Y. M. C. A. building in Boston and will then motor to Cambridge to participate in that city's carnival. He will return to Boston from the carnival and after the banquet motor back to Beverly.

A CRIPPLED NEWSBOY

Gives Up Leg to Save a Girl

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—A sacrifice without precedent was made yesterday by William Hugh, Jr., a Gary newsboy, when he gave up his crippled leg that the life of a girl whom he had never known, but whose sufferings had deeply impressed him, should be saved. He voluntarily offered his leg that the child might be transplanted on the limbs sustained by the girl, Ethel Smith.

Three weeks ago, while riding with a friend on a motorcycle, the gasoline tank exploded and Miss Smith was terribly burned. Her physician, Dr. J. A. Craig, said the only chance for recovery was the transfer of a large area of healthy skin.

Young Hugh, who has a newsstand on Broadway and Sixth street east of the city's suffering and rallied on her physician and offered his leg. The leg had been crippled when he was a year old and he was compelled to use a crutch.

Dr. Craig consulted with Miss Smith and her parents. She elected to the sacrifice, but last week, as her sufferings increased, she withdrew her consent. Finally she was removed to the Gary General Hospital. Hugh, selling his papers, said:

"I am glad she is willing. I don't want to be pictured as a martyr."

In the meantime his business had so grown that he had more than half the papers circulated in Gary. He was told to appear at the hospital this morning. He appeared at 10 o'clock and told Dr. Craig that he was ready.

Hugh was taken to a room for examination. His heart and other organs were found in good condition and his operation was performed and is believed to be a success. Hugh's leg was amputated at the thigh.

ASSAULTED AN OFFICER

The Whole Police Force Looking for Kearns

BROCKTON, Sept. 30.—While Special Officer William H. Icker was hunting through his pockets for a match in the cell room at the police station yesterday, Jos. Kearns of 225 Grove street, better known as "Barney" Kearns, struck Icker on the shoulder with enough force to unbalance him and escaped through an unlocked gate and out through the front door of the station.

Kearns was arrested Saturday on charges of drunkenness and disturbance. He was taken from his cell with another prisoner for an examination as to weight and height. Kearns asked Icker for a match, and it was while the officer was searching for one that Kearns made his escape.

Kearns is on bail of $1000 for alleged highway robbery, pending action by the grand jury next week.

Every policeman in the city is searching for Kearns, against whom two new charges will be brought if arrested, the police claim.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Lowell Opera House

Saturday is usually a rather poor day for any show at the Opera House. Perhaps to this fact was largely due the small attendance at the performance of "The Bohemian Girl," a dramatization of a novel of that name by Robert W. Chambers. The performance was clean and touching. Various reasons of the failure of conventional life being strangely enforced. The company deserved a more liberal patronage. It included LeRoy Mitchell as "Louis Neville," Joseph Holman as "Jose Querida," Edward Wilson as "John Burleson," Edward Davis as "Sam O'Leary," William Swayne as "Alvin O'Hara," Davis Woodbridge as "Valerie West," Madge Tyrone as "Mrs. Travis," and Martha Conway as "Mrs. Neville."

"THE BOHEMIAN GIRL"

At the Opera House on Saturday, Oct. 5th, matinee and night, the Aborn Opera company will present the spectacular production of "The Bohemian Girl" with its wealth of charming melodies, gorgeous stage settings, and closing act of stage pictures in the incidental detail of which, that wizard of stage realizers, Edward P. Temple, has so consistently combined the best of modern musical comedy, horses, monkeys, geese, chickens, etc., is said to be duplicating its immense success of last season.

CREATORE'S BAND

One of the most interesting events in store for Lowell is the appearance at the Opera House next Sunday afternoon and evening of Creatore's band. In speaking of this noted organization the Boston Globe says: "The secret of Creatore's success is his ability to combine the most modern and a passionate nature, to the emotions of the music. Creatore is Italian—he throws reserve to the wind and the very air. The audience watches the wonderful leader even as his men do. There is no show-off. Creatore is modest, and beyond the possibility of being even in the blindest, feels every motion to which he gives expression. At the end of the concert the audience refused to leave the hall, and after Creatore had been called out half a dozen times, in order to get rid of his admirers, he got his band and orchestra and the Star Spangled Banner" and created "The Star Spangled Banner" with an accompaniment of musical fireworks that sent everybody home in an exalted state of enjoyment."

Lowell, Sept. 30.—B. O. Elks have secured Creatore for a benefit performance for their building fund and tickets for the entertainment are now for sale by members of the organization. The box office sale opens Tuesday.

WORLD'S SERIES GAMES

The announcement that the world's series league games may be enjoyed right here in Lowell will be welcomed news to the thousands of enthusiastic fans who will be unable to secure tickets for the games at Fenway park or the Polo Grounds. An elaborate electrical device known as "The Perfect Scoreboard" will be installed on the stage of the Opera House during these games and a special Western Union telegraph wire run to the theatre and an operator detailed in the theatre. The "Perfect Scoreboard" is a mammoth affair, arranged in diamond shape and filled with electric lights. Every detail of the game is instantly shown on the board and next to a view to the grounds, a seat at the corner house will be the most desirable feature of the day for lovers of the national game.

The Playhouse

Fifteen people conspire to make "The Maid and the Prince," which will appear at the B. F. Keith Theatre, this week, one of the coming hits of the year. Everywhere its snap and ginger, its punning melodies, its chic dancing girls have made it a prime favorite, and it will certainly not be an exception in the role in the matter Ben Loring and Blanche Parquette will be in the leading roles, with a Lowell cast. The play is a comedy in three acts, the story of a young girl who is kidnapped by a king's guard, and who, after a series of adventures, is rescued by a prince.

THE MOVING PICTURES

Said to Have Made Boys Robbers

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Moving pictures and novels of robberies caused George Gannett of 615 Harrison avenue, and George Bennett, of 4 Union Park street to carry out, yesterday, some of the things that they had seen and read about.

Gannett is nine years old, and Bennett is eight. Both of these youthful robbers broke the window of the bakery of Martin McDonald at 621 Tremont street and entered McDonald's store, robbing the till behind the counter of $30.

They afterward went to the store at 254 Columbus avenue, hurled a stone through the big plate glass window and started to crawl through.

Patrolman Desmond of the East Dedham street station, who was looking for them on the McDonald break, captured them.

Both boys admitted the break, and were taken to their homes by the patrolman. They were held till the owners of the two stores were notified.

Gale's Comet Observed

Two observations of Gale's comet were made in this country last week, according to a telegram received at the Harvard college observatory.

The comet was observed by Dr. W. R. Brooks of Geneva, N. Y., Sept. 27 at seven hours, standard time, being then in right ascension 15 hours, 7 minutes 30 seconds and declination minus 19 degrees 50 minutes. It was visible in a three-inch telescope.

The second observation was made at the Swayze observatory, Granville, Ohio, according to a telegram from Prof. P. Blefeld. It was in the approximate position given in Blefeld's ephemeris and was easily visible in a three-inch telescope. No trace of a tail was noted and the nucleus was described as "uncertain."

WED IN CHICAGO

William Johnson of Worcester Can't Find Time to Go to Los Angeles to Claim Bride

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Because William Johnson, a young engineer of Worcester, Mass., could not leave his work long enough to come to Los Angeles to claim the young woman of his choice, Miss Alice Edstrand, the bride-to-be, has gone to Chicago, where she will be married.

The wedding is the result of a pretty romance which had its beginning in a Sunday school of Worcester which the young people attended. Miss Edstrand came to Los Angeles with her parents three years ago.

WARNING AGAINST THE BOSSES

Issued by Governor Wilson Who Wants a Progressive for
Governor

SEAGIRT, N. J., Sept. 30.—Governor Wilson issued a statement last night calling upon the delegates to the New York state democratic convention at Syracuse next Tuesday to choose as candidate for governor "a progressive man of the kind to be his own master."

He likewise urged a progressive platform and declared that "it will not do for the choice of the convention at Syracuse to be any less free than that which gave the third party Mr. Straus and the regular republican party Mr. Hedges."

It is not believed that anything more definite in the way of an expression of opinion will be forthcoming from the presidential nominee before the state convention begins. It is regarded also as unlikely that he will express preference for any particular person, although his close friends at the convention will know what type of man he would accept to the presidential candidate.

Governor Wilson's statement, in full, follows:

"I have been looking forward to the Syracuse convention with the deepest interest because I realize its critical importance to the party throughout the nation and I have, made my own opinion with regard to it very plain to every friend from New York, who has done me the honor to consult me."

"I have not said anything in public about it or through the newspapers, because I wanted to avoid even the appearance of doing what I condemn in others, namely, trying to dictate what a great party organization should do, what candidates it should choose and what platforms it should adopt."

"But the very principle to which I hold myself bound, both in speech and in action, justifies me in saying that the whole country demands and expects that the democracy of New York should be absolutely free to make its own choice. I believe that it is ready to choose a progressive man of a kind to be his own master and to adopt a platform to which men of progressive principles everywhere can heartily subscribe, if only it be left free from personal control of any sort."

"The organized democrats of the great state of New York are ready to serve the nation and to serve it with intelligence. They need no direction from the governor of another state, even though he be the candidate for his party for the presidency."

"It is seldom organizations that are at fault, it is those who attempt to direct their action. No intelligent party leader can justly or wisely or even intelligently condemn or reject the open and honest organization by which along parties can be held to concerted action, but he can and must do everything in his power to keep them free and unbosomed."

"The democracy of New York is at a critical turning point in its history. A whole country awaits its action at Syracuse with deep attention and concern."

"Democrats everywhere look to it to set an example and vindicate the fair name of the party. They will feel the chill and discouragement very keenly if it should fail to hope and enthusiasm if it should accomplish what it expected of it."

"It will not do for the choice of the convention at Syracuse to be any less free than that which gave the third party Mr. Straus and the regular republican party Mr. Hedges."

EXPLOSION OF POWDER

Man Was Burned About
the Face

Elmer Olson, who resides at 40 Warlock street, was burned about the face Saturday as a result of the explosion of a blast of powder while clearing some land of stones. Mr. Olson recently purchased some land in West Tewksbury and Saturday started to clear out the rock by the use of blasting powder.

One of the blasts did not go off and going close to the spot where he had planted the powder he threw a lighted match at it and the charge went off and the flash burned his face.

Mr. Olson managed to go to his home and later was treated by Dr. George A. Leahy.

Fire in Cellar

An alarm from box 131 at 4:39 o'clock yesterday afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a fire in the cellar of a house in the rear of 14 Howe street. The fire started in a pile of excelsior and burned through the partition and filled the house with smoke. The blaze, however, was extinguished before much damage was done.

THE POWER THAT ATTRACTS

THE NEW 54-HOUR LAW

Goes Into Effect in New York Tonight and it is Said Will Affect Over 375,000 People

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—More than 300,000 women and over 75,000 boys in New York city and state will be affected by a law which goes into effect at 12 o'clock tonight, limiting the work in factories to 54 hours a week. Of the total number concerned about one-half live and work in Greater New York.

The new law, which is an outgrowth of the agitation that followed the Triangle Shirtwaist fire, applies to every female, young or old, who works in a factory, and to every male factory worker under 18.

The new act provides that not more than one hour of overtime work shall be done in any one day, and unless paid as overtime a factory day for the classes named must not exceed 10 hours.

Board of Trade

The executive committee of the board of trade met in regular weekly session this afternoon and transacted considerable routine business.

MANHATTANS ELECT OFFICERS

For Ensuing Year—Old

Board Returned to Office—Concert Held

The annual election of officers of the Manhattan Social club was held in the club rooms in Gorham street yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock, with President Chas. L. Crowley in the chair. The president told of the occasion of the meeting and then reviewed the progress made by the organization during the year just closed. He spoke of the manner in which all the officers had performed their duties and thanked the members in behalf of all the officers for their assistance and co-operation in all undertakings during the year.

The nominating committee was then called upon, and the latter announced the following selections: President, Charles L. Crowley; vice president, Charles L. Emerson; treasurer, John Ready; recording secretary, Charles Fitzpatrick; financial secretary, Daniel McCarthy; board of directors, John Ward, Albert Olson, John Frawley, Thomas Spencer and Harry Jepson. These include the officers who were already in office and the secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the entire board and they were declared elected. The degree team, then inducted into the office and each spoke, thanking the members for honoring them with another term. A committee was appointed to arrange for a ladies' night to be given in the club rooms next month.

President Crowley then called for the entertainment committee to provide a program and the following was given: Song, Charles Fitzpatrick; song, "Look Out For the Man Who Owns an Automobile," John Ready; cornet solo, John Baxter; piano duet, Leo Crowley and Albert Olson; solo, John Frawley; recitation, "A Joy Ride," John Ward; recitation, Manhattan club quartet, Frank Doherty, John Frawley, James Farrell and Albert Olson; remarks, Thomas Spencer; recitation, "How I Built the Chimney," Charles Emerson; vocal duet, James Mahan and Lawrence Gensidine; recitation, Fred Brady; The Manhattan orchestra furnished music during the concert.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY

Doctor Says He Can Re-
new Youth

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—A remarkable series of experiments first conducted upon his aged mother, then upon himself and later upon 50 of his intimate friends, has enabled Dr. Frank R. Starkey of this city to discover an extract made from various ductless glands that will prolong life for a period of years and make old folks appear much younger.

In fact, it is really an elixir of youth that he has found, although he regards his polyglandular extract being given that name. Working along entirely different lines from Metchnikoff, the French scientist, the Philadelphia doctor has actually produced the results the scientist has aimed for and has living witnesses to attest the wonderful results.

Dr. Starkey has taken extracts from the pituitary gland in the base of the skull which influences the growth of the body, and when administered to children of stunted growth it is said to make them grow larger. He has extracts from the thyroid gland which influences the flesh and tissue development of the body and also from various reproductive glands.

The combination of these various extracts, Dr. Starkey has found, increases the cell reproduction, purifies the blood, gives added vitality to the nervous system, all of which is conducive to longevity. His first experiments were made a number of years ago upon his mother, who, although 70 years old, is as active and appears to be a woman of 50.

Although in age not yet at the half-century mark, the doctor spent years in research work abroad following his graduation in this city so diligently as to make him appear much older than he was. He began to inject his extract into his own body with most remarkable results. Although he is still a great and as diligent a student of science as ever, his face is fuller than two years ago, wrinkles and drawn look have disappeared.

In a paper recently read before the Medical society here, Dr. Starkey told of a number of unusual and obstinate cases of neurasthenia he had cured with the extract. He has also found it of benefit in typhoid fever, pneumonia, eczema and locomotor ataxia.

FIFTY-TWO IMMIGRANTS ARRIVED

Thirty of the Party Went to Lawrence and Others to Berlin, N. H.

A large party of immigrants arrived in this city today, coming here on the Fall River boat train, which arrived at the Boston & Maine station at 8:45 o'clock this morning. There were 52 in the party, mostly men and women, who came here direct from the old country. They arrived in New York last Saturday and took the boat from there to Fall River, where they boarded the train that brought them to Lowell today.

THE ROSARY DEVOTIONS

To be Held in Catholic Churches Next Month

COLLECTIONS FOR CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS NEXT SUNDAY

Quarterly Communion and Election of Officers of C. Y. M. L.—News From the Different Parishes

The Catholic churches throughout Lowell are now in the midst of preparations and plans for a busy fall and winter season. The month of October will prove an exceptionally busy one because of the additional services with which the month of the Holy Rosary will be observed. The societies of the different parishes are also planning an active season.

St. Patrick's
At the 11 o'clock high mass yesterday at St. Patrick's church, Rev. T. F. Wood, O. M. I., of the Sacred Heart parish delivered a very instructive discourse on the gospel of the day. It was announced at all the masses that there will be a high mass of month's mind on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock (Rev. Margaret Mitchell) on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock there will be an anniversary high mass of requiem for Mrs. Mary Quinn, and on Friday at 8 o'clock for Bessie Curran.

The devotions of the First Friday will consist of masses at 5, 6, 30 and 8 o'clock and Holy Hour at 7:30 in the evening. Devotions for the Holy Rosary will take place at the church every evening this month at 7:30 o'clock and will comprise the recitation of the rosary and benediction. Confessions will be heard on next Thursday afternoon and evening.

The members of the Catholic Young Men's League attended the 7 o'clock mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday, and received their quarterly communion. After gathering in the lecture rooms on Suffolk street, the members marched to the church, where they occupied seats in the centre aisle. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Mr. William O'Brien, P. R. After mass breakfast was served in the school hall, after which the regular business session of the society was held. The officers for the ensuing term were elected with the following result: President, John T. McDermott, vice president, John Halloran, financial secretary, John Murphy, recording secretary, Charles Flynn.

The reports of the several committees were of a most encouraging nature. Announcement was made that the baseball team of the season had started in practising and expected to establish a new record as last season.

St. Peter's
Rev. John F. Burns celebrated the parish mass at St. Peter's church yesterday morning and Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan preached a most instructive sermon, taking for his subject the devotion of the rosary. He urged a large attendance of the members of the parish at the October devotions for all hands in need of graces which these devotions afford. He referred to the recitation of the rosary as a beautiful devotion.

"CASCARETS" BEST BOWEL CLEANSER

Headache, Sour Stomach and Biliousness Gone By Morning.

Furred tongue, bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headache come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a tight barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and miserable. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a ten-cent box for your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomachs lively and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Job E. Hedges and J. W. Wadsworth, Junior, Nominated by the New York Republicans

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Job E. Hedges, republican candidate for governor for William L. Strong, he carried the latter through to the majority. He became a city magistrate, but gave up that post to practice law. He is a bachelor. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., who was nominated for lieutenant governor, is only thirty-five years old. He lives at Groveland, four miles from Geneva, Livingston county, N. Y. His farm of 1100 acres is devoted to the raising of cattle and sheep. He is a real farmer in every sense of the word. He was reared in the business and trained and educated for it in 1902 Mr. Wadsworth married Miss Alice Hay, daughter of the late Secretary Hay. A son and daughter are the fruit of this union. The family reside in a picturesque modern Colonial house on the farm. Mr. Wadsworth was graduated from Yale in the class of '98. He first entered politics in the autumn of 1904, when he was selected assemblyman. He was elected speaker of the assembly in 1906 and served a such for five years.

As to Buying in Boston

There is less reason for buying Furniture in Boston now than ever before. A. E. O'Heir & Co.'s New Furniture Store offers a sufficient variety, and all of the latest designs, and at 25 to 40 per cent. less than you would have to pay in Boston for the same article. Except when they advertise a "Wonderful, Exceptional, Extraordinary Mark Down Sale," then and only then will you buy as cheap as you buy in Lowell at any time.

NOW MARK

We are not charging Boston merchants with wilful deceit. They do have mark downs, but marked down from "Boston" prices, not Lowell prices. They actually believe they are selling cheap, and from their standard of profits and from their immense cost of doing business, they are. But it costs so much less to do business in Lowell or any smaller city that Lowell merchants sell a great deal cheaper and make as much. Any Socialist and student of political economy knows that. Herbert Spencer, Henry George and many others have demonstrated the fact. Take the item of rent, for instance. In a recent conversation with one who knows who visited our new store lately, he said: "Our store is not any larger than this, and we pay Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000) a year rent." Our interest, taxes, insurance, etc., does not cost us Eighteen Hundred ($1800) a year. How in the world do you expect that they can sell as cheap in Boston? And there is a proportionate difference in different locations in this city. We could not duplicate as large or as well equipped a store as we have here farther down town for less than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8000). In other words, we can sell Sixty Thousand Dollars' (60,000) worth of Furniture and Carpets a year for ten per cent. less and make just as much ourselves. Now, if you are wise, you will walk a few steps out of your way and save money by buying at

FOUR WERE MURDERED

Home Was Burned to Hide Evidence

QUINCY, Ill., Sept. 30.—It is believed that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pfandschmidt, their daughter, Blanche, 16, and Miss Emma Kaempfen, 21, a teacher, whose charred bodies were found today in the ruins of Pfandschmidt's country home near Payson, sixteen miles southeast of Quincy, were murdered.

Circumstances indicate that the victims perished while asleep. Developments last night indicate that all four were murdered and that the home was set on fire to hide the crime. While the bodies of the victims were charred almost beyond recognition, the head of Miss Kaempfen was preserved. At the top of the skull was a fearful wound, evidently made with a club. Miss Pfandschmidt's head bore a gash several inches across.

The bodies of the two older persons had been burned too badly to indicate the nature of their death. Indications are that the crime was committed late Friday night. The telephone wires were cut.

Bloodhounds are being used by the sheriff in an effort to trace the murderer.

THE ATHLETICS

To Put the Boston Red Sox Through a Good Course of Training to Fit Them For the World's Series

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—When the Red Sox come here this week to close the season the home team expects to put the new pennant winners through a course of practice that will aid greatly in fitting them for the world's series. Connie Mack's men, having been through the fire of two world's series, one of them with the New York Giants, the local Americans leave before the match was completed.

expect to give Jake Stahl's men many pointers. They will do partly through their loyalty to their own league and partly because James McAleer, president of the Boston Americans, managed the two teams of star players that kept the Athletics on edge for their series against Chicago and New York.

Bender and Coombs will give Wood and the other right-handed pitchers of the Red Sox the benefit of their experience against the Giants and Plank will do the same for Ray Collins, a Southpaw.

The Athletics will, as far as possible, play the New York style of ball and will try hard to win. They intend to be especially sly on the bases in order to give the Boston catchers an idea of what they will have to look for when the Giants get on the bases.

Independent Chinese Loan
LONDON, Sept. 30.—The issue of the Independent Chinese loan last week was a failure as far as the public was concerned. Only about 40 per cent. of the $2,500,000 was subscribed for by the general public so that the underwriters had to take up the balance of 60 per cent.

Next week is Quarter Week at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

THE NEW TIME TABLE OWNER OF THE GIANTS

Went Into Effect on B. & John T. Brush Not in the M. Today

The new Boston and Maine railroad time table went into effect today and the schedule embraces a great many changes from the summer table and also differs considerably from the one in operation last winter.

One very important change is the last train out of Lowell for Boston, which will leave here at 10:15, instead of 9:55. This is considered an excellent train for business men who come to Lowell to spend the day. It arrives in Boston at 11:30.

Other western division changes are 10:10 to Boston changed to 10:55; 11:05 discontinued; 7:05 p. m. changed to 7:15. From Boston—6:50 a. m. changed to 6:40; 8:35 discontinued; 10:55 a. m. changed to 10:50; 9:35 p. m. changed to 9:25.

The southern division changes are 8:30 a. m. to Boston changed to 8:55; 10:30 a. m. changed to 10:40; 11:05 a. m. New York train discontinued; 4:23 p. m. train also discontinued; 4:25 p. m. to 4:55; 5:55 p. m. to 6:35; 7:15 p. m. to 7:21.

Sunday trains, Southern Division—8:30 a. m. to Boston changed to 9:05 and 7:31 p. m. changed to 7:21. The 9:30 train from Boston has been taken out.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Gov. Marshall, the democratic candidate for vice president, who arrived here from Indianapolis, in commenting on the charge of Col. Roosevelt at Chattanooga that the governor was a representative of the Taggart machine, pointed out that he looked horns with Mr. Taggart over the senatorship two years ago and defeated him.

"In the campaign for governor this year," added Gov. Marshall, "I felt it necessary to keep out of the contest as all of the candidates had supported me."

Gov. Marshall will speak in Lowell and Lawrence tonight, in Salem and Lynn tomorrow night and at Norwich, Conn. on Thursday.

BOYS MAKE BREAKS

Stole Watches and Sold Them in Vermont

Henry Belliveau, aged 16 years, who is alleged to be one of the members of a gang of young men who have been breaking into residences throughout this city of late was arrested at his home in White street yesterday morning on a warrant charging him with breaking and entering and larceny in three counts. The arrest was made by Sgt. Ryan and Patrolmen Geggins and Whalen.

It is alleged that the boy entered the house of Carl Peterson in Maple street in company with two other boys and stole two watches, a pair of eye glasses and a revolver. As previously stated in The Sun the thieves gained an entrance by ripping off a screen and forcing a window.

After they had gone through the house they boarded a freight train and went to White River Junction where they sold one of the watches which was valued at $40 for $4. They then went to Roxbury, Vt. and disposed of the other watch for $2.

It is said that Belliveau is a member of the gang that broke into the Nichols residence in Middlesex street with other young men and was also in the gang that entered the Johnson house in Middlesex Village.

7 MERRIMACK SQUARE

THEFT OF $25,000 IS CHARGED

A. W. Quigg is Accused in Looting of the A. O. U. W. Fund

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 30.—A second arrest was made here yesterday afternoon in connection with the alleged looting of the beneficial funds of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Rhode Island, of which J. Irving Davis, a Grand Lodge officer, was the custodian.

The arrested man is Alfred W. Quigg, a broker, 54 years old, having an office at 635 Grosvenor building and residing at 8 Howard avenue, Pawtucket. Quigg is accused by the police of having stolen $25,000 from Jacob Irving Davis, the property of the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W.

The arrest was made by Inspector Abbott, who also arrested Davis Friday afternoon on a warrant alleging that he had embezzled $25,000 from the A. O. U. W.

Davis, it is alleged, frankly admitted he had taken more than $51,000, or within $500 of the entire reserve fund entrusted to his care, but he is said to have offered no explanation save that the money had been taken within the last four years and that he had probably bankrupted the order.

Davis pleaded not guilty and was held in $50,000 bail, failing to secure which he was committed to the Providence county jail. He was silent until yesterday afternoon, when his counsel was made on Chief Inspector Horton and a story told him which was acted upon yesterday.

When arrested Quigg was taken to headquarters and questioned. He was confronted with the statement that he had given Davis four notes, the first for $500, dated Jan. 7, 1908. The others were made at later dates, one being for $11,000. It is alleged, Davis also held memoranda of sums borrowed by Quigg aggregating $65,000, the police assert.

Quigg admitted, so Chief Horton says, that he signed the notes, but denied having received the money or any part of it, alleging that the notes represented a deal between Davis and himself.

Quigg was not arraigned, as he said it would be difficult for him to obtain bail last night. He was therefore locked up at the central police station and will, Inspector Horton says, be brought before the court this morning.

Davis told his counsel, it is asserted, that four years ago Quigg interested him in the proposed purchase of a newspaper plant in New York state, saying that it was so good a proposition that he, Davis, was sure to realize two for one on his investment.

To carry out this deal, it is alleged, he advanced $5000 from the funds in his possession as custodian of the A. O. U. W., and took Quigg's note for that amount. There came requests for further advances which were made. The $6500 items, so Chief Horton says, Davis alleged were loans he made because he was afraid to refuse, fearing he would lose what he had already put into the newspaper deal. Chief Horton declares Davis says he has never seen the newspaper property Quigg was to purchase.

Quigg took his arrest calmly, telephoning to his wife from headquarters not to worry. It was, he said, but a

REV. G. F. KENNGOTT

Reviewed 20 Years Pastorate of His Church

THE RESIGNATION OF REV. E. VICTOR BIGELOW WILL STAND

Though the Parishioners Wished Him to Remain—Rally Day Observed in Several of the Churches

At the First Trinitarian Congregational church, Sunday morning, Rev. Dr. George F. Kennigott reviewed his 20 years' work as pastor of that church and intimated that his labors here were about to cease. He said that the completion of a 20 years' pastorate seemed a natural terminus.

Referring to the cosmopolitan nature of the First Trinitarian church, Dr. Kennigott said:

"And not only have we the representatives of so many different nationalities; but we have enrolled in our membership today men and women of almost every denomination, who have been attracted to this church because it has stood as a Congregational church for Christian liberty, for the freedom of the faith, for the authority of the truth, and for Christian ministrations. We have thus people who once were Roman Catholics, Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, Lutherans, Universalists, Presbyterians, Spiritualists and I know not how many other denominations.

"Our relations here, as pastor and people," said the preacher, "have been peculiarly intimate. Indeed, they are unique. A letter came to me yesterday from a former Congregational pastor in Lowell, reading thus: 'No pastor ever had a more loyal church and no man ever had truer friends than you have had in the city of your 20-year pastorate.' In the time of trial and sorrow, the older men and women treated me as their son; now I have their children as my brothers and sisters, or my foster-children.

Yet, this same clergyman wrote in the next sentence: 'At the same time 20 years is a natural terminus, and unless you decide to abide permanently in Lowell, this is a call (referring to a recent call for service elsewhere), to a work for which you are particularly adapted. You cannot yet know as I do the relief which equally hard work in another field will bring you and especially Mrs. Kennigott, who has worked harder than any minister's wife of whom I have known in my 30 odd years of ministerial acquaintance. You will feel both these drawings even more than I do, but the good Father will guide you to the right decision, I am sure.'

Indeed, it has seemed to me that the completion of the 20 years' pastorate is a natural terminus to a happy and, on the whole, a successful pastorate. I can leave now with honor and a sense of accomplishment, with the church and pastor are both hale and hearty, happy in each other's love. Another man who has not known the past, a man of God, carefully selected and well trained, can lead you into the Promised Land. We have fought our way together through the wilderness, and started on this new path. I had hoped to have the pleasure of leading you on till my death, but the completion of life are withheld from all. And somehow I feel it is better for us all that you should work out your salvation with fear and trembling, playing your part as men and women in the city of God, assured of my spiritual presence, though elsewhere in the body, so long as God gives me life, doing his will and executing the plans which here have been conceived, doing the work on earth for which he sent me hither and for which both friends and foes in Lowell have trained me.

The Elliot Church

The resignation of Rev. E. Victor Bigelow, as pastor of the Elliot church as tendered to the members of the congregation last July will stand.

The Elliot church people held a meeting a short time ago and voted not to accept the resignation of Rev. E. Victor Bigelow. The latter nevertheless, although deeply appreciating the love of his congregation for him as expressed in the decision, is of the opinion that it were better if he stand by his act of last July and this he will do. The following letter to the members of the Elliot church from their leader expresses the sentiment of Rev. Mr. Bigelow:

To the Members of Elliot Church and the Elliot Congregational Society:

Your cordial vote not to accept my resignation, tendered to you last July, has been very much appreciated as a token of personal esteem. Added to that, many kindly protests have come to me from Lowell people outside of this church.

I must not undervalue these tokens. Nevertheless, I cannot withdraw my resignation. I am fully convinced that the welfare of this church, as well as my own usefulness in the ministry, demand that I should do so.

Girlish, Wrinkle-Free Skin Easy to Have

(From Pilgrim Magazine)

Since its remarkable astringent and tonic properties became known, clever women all over the world have been using the saxolite face bath to "tone up" their faces, remove wrinkles and draw flabby cheeks and neck back to normal. After using the solution, the face immediately feels much firmer. The skin is soothed evenly, gradually, all over the face, thus reducing lines and sagging. The formula is: Powdered saxolite, 1 ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, 2 quarts.

Another wonderful facial beautifier and rejuvenator that has become quite a rage in the United States and Europe, is the so-called wax. Druggists report a great demand. The wax literally absorbs a yellow, bilious or withered complexion, giving the fresh, rosy complexion of youth. Young skin underneath a chance to "breathe" and to show itself. Applying the wax at night, after cold cream, washing it off in the morning, will completely reconvert a poor complexion in a week or ten days. One ounce usually is sufficient.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY

Frightened Horse Kicked Driver in Forehead

MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 30.—One man was killed and two others injured early yesterday morning in a runaway accident just outside of the city limits.

Edgar Stevens, 57, of Weare, who was killed, was driving the horse, and when he hit the animal with the reins the horse kicked, striking him in the forehead, crushing in his skull.

The two other men were riding in the wagon with him, and when the horse started to run away they were both thrown out, both receiving numerous cuts and bruises. They were C. E. Stevens, a son of the man who was killed, and Charles Dicker.

When the reins dropped from Stevens' hands the horse bolted about the dark, narrow road, with Dicker on the left, and Stevens on the right, the younger Stevens clinging to the sides of the wagon. They were thrown out when the wagon crashed into a tree, demolishing the outfit.

WILSON'S STRENGTH GROWING.

As the campaign progresses there is growing evidence that Governor Wilson is steadily becoming stronger as a candidate. His popularity is increasing as the people learn more about him and hear him explain the issues of the campaign and what the three parties stand for.

With the split in the republican party neither of the wings is making much impression. Had there been no split the return of the republican party to power would be hardly possible in view of its record of opposition to the masses and its alliance with the trusts of the country. But whatever chance of success the republican party might have had before disruption, in its present aspect as the lesser part of the whole it cannot hope for victory.

On the other hand, the Bull Moose party with Roosevelt at its head is a delusion and a snare. If anybody asks why, we shall simply answer—Roosevelt. That is enough but there is more. The platform offers no relief on the tariff but it does offer a number of revolutionary changes in the constitution that would establish a rule and make the people the final arbiters on supreme court decisions.

The attitude of Governor Wilson upon the tariff and all the other issues is acceptable to such an overwhelming majority of the people that his election is a foregone conclusion.

Moreover Wilson's strength comes largely from the fact that he has a party behind him that can be relied upon to force popular reforms through congress. This party stands for popular rule that will eliminate the special favors which enable the trusts and combines to impose upon the masses by the usurpation of the responsibilities of government and by various kinds of outrageous extortion. The democratic platform provides for the proper regulation of the trusts so that the trusts and monopolies will be deprived of their power and that the masses will be enabled to derive a greater share of the wealth they produce in return for their labor.

Wilson will be the next president of the United States unless party sentiment undergoes a radical change of which, we believe, there is not the slightest danger.

The present hopeful outlook should therefore inspire the masses with enthusiasm as the hour of their deliverance from trust oppression and exploitation is at hand.

Wilson and Marshall will sweep the country and Taft, the leader of a lost cause, and Roosevelt, the swindler, demagogue and mountebank, will be retired to private life. So far as Roosevelt is concerned that will be a great relief. The country under Wilson and Marshall will start upon a new era of success. It is the anticipation of that success that is now inspiring such confidence as has rarely been experienced at the approach of a national election. Democrats should therefore cheer themselves up so as to make the victory as complete and as sweeping as possible for it will mark an important epoch in this country's history.

THE I. W. W. STRIKE

The proposition for a general two-day strike of the I. W. W. is intended as a demonstration of the power of the organization. After the two-day strike, if this be successful, will doubtless come an order for a ten-day strike or out for a longer period. The general strike is the weapon with which the leader, hope ultimately to be able to paralyze all industry at will in this country. It is the great power urged by Haywood and his followers. It may operate in Lawrence, but it cannot accomplish much in this city. The operatives of the local mills, or at least 90 per cent. of them, are intelligent and reasonable people who are not willing to be a party to any such radical action as the general strike to show the prestige of any leader.

What does this two-day strike mean? It means that so far as the organization can exert its power or influence it will do so to injure manufacturing concerns with which it has never had any conflict.

Lowell is to be congratulated upon the fact that the orders of the I. W. W. will have little effect in this city. The local members have been trying to keep up a strike in the Appleton mill but without success. The prospect is that the organization will never exercise a controlling influence with the operatives of this city. If it appears that the members cannot be relied upon to work steadily the mills would be justified in refusing to hire them. People who are always trying to work up strikes are the least desirable for any mill or any city. When manufacturing concerns are looking for suitable locations, one of the first things they inquire about is whether the place is free from labor trouble. If not, then it is passed without further consideration. This is what industrial disturbers do to a city. There are occasions when strikes are justified and should be supported, but this general strike ordered by the I. W. W. is intended as the first step to a revolution, and it should be firmly opposed by all the friends of justice, progress and civil liberty.

NEW YORK SUN POLL SHOWS WILSON A LEADER

The New York Sun publishes a special poll of four election districts in New York on the question as to whom Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft were voted for as the leaders of their respective parties. The result is as follows:

Four Election Districts				Vote of Same Districts in 1908
E.D. A.D.	Wilson	Roosevelt	Taft	E.D. A.D.	Taft	Bryan	Hispan
21	23	107	94	105	21	23	107
22	35	118	25	36	21	35	118
23	6	111	24	27	5	6	111
24	7	111	25	27	12	7	111
Totals				105	105	105	105
The Taft-Roosevelt vote, 1908, 301.				Taft's majority over Bryan, 114.
Wilson's majority over Taft, 187.

Our New York contemporary is smart enough to admit that Wilson is likely to poll more votes than the combined vote of the other two candidates. The districts thus polled were formerly republican as the vote of 1908 shows. The change has to be made the republican party at the present time is entirely discredited as a result of the two factions fighting each other. Roosevelt does not expect to be elected. He will be satisfied if he can defeat Taft and crush the republican party. The same proportion as shown above would probably hold good throughout the country.

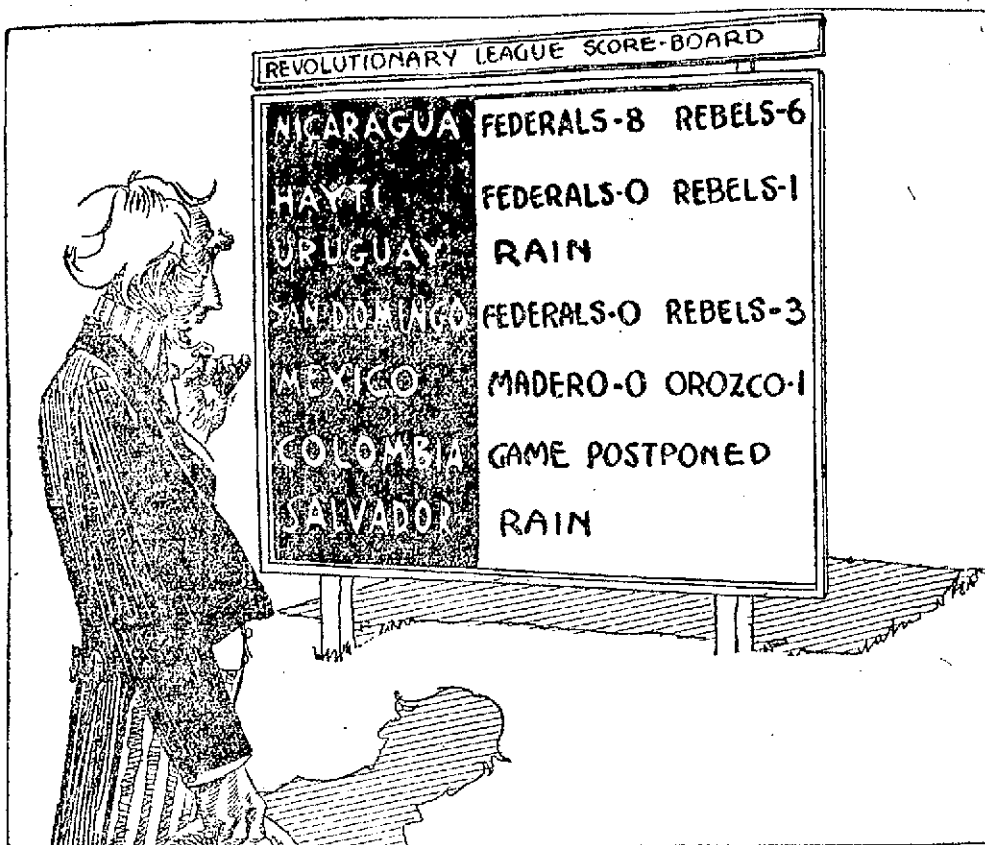

PURE FOOD LAWS

Very eminent authorities of professional standing are now coming out with statements to prove that the poison known as benzoate of soda is harmless when taken into the stomach with other food, and that Dr. Wiley in prosecution of his case in the preservation of food was opposed to the public interest. Dr. Wiley, however, had that the drug was used mainly to disguise the impurities of food that had become unfit for use by fermentation or decay and that it thus enabled dealers and canning concerns to impose upon the people by selling food near the country.

TODAY'S RALLY

Every democrat in Lowell should have Governor Marshall of Indiana at Associate Ball Game. It will be a real treat to hear him as he is one of the best orators in the country. Republicanism, too, will benefit by his being so near the masses of the people. The people will be able to see the man who is the cause of the trouble imposed upon the people by the republican party.

If we are to judge from the names that appear in the New York papers that names, it could be seen that the popular delusion that the New York papers are practically all truth has been effectively exploded. There is not a single name listed in that nationality among the accused.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

For the Late Dr. John Jay Colton Held at Pawtucket Church Last Night and Largely Attended

The service in the chapel of the Pawtucket church was largely attended last night and was a memorial to the late Dr. John Jay Colton. In the course of the service a number of those who had known and loved him spoke of his life and work and some of his favorite hymns were sung.

Those who spoke were Mr. Sidney E. Peet, Mr. C. A. Richardson, Miss E. C. Colburn, Deacon E. W. Burnham of the Kirk Street church, Deacon A. M. Horr and Rev. F. G. Alger, the latter speaking briefly on the doctor's influence for good in the church and community.

CHAUFFEUR SURRENDERS

He is Charged With Manslaughter

HAVERHILL, Sept. 20.—Geo. Hull of West Newbury surrendered and was admitted to $1000 bail yesterday for a hearing in the district court today on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of William Knowles of Rocks Village. Saturday evening after being struck by an automobile owned and operated by Hull, on the state highway near Haverhill.

Knowles, with Matthew Donegan, also of Rocks Village, was coming to this city and they were walking on the highway near the street car track. There is a sharp curve in the road near Carrs Hill and on hearing a noise the two men, thinking that an electric car was approaching, started toward the north side of the roadway.

Donegan says that when he saw it was an auto and not an electric car that was approaching he turned back toward the electric car tracks, but the machine struck Knowles, pinning him between the mudguard and the hood, and as he fell forward when the machine was being stopped the auto passed over him. The injured man was picked up and taken to a house nearby, where he died in half an hour.

Donegan and Hull both say the accident was unavoidable.

YOUNG MAN TOOK POISON

Because He Was Jilted by Girl

ROCKLAND, Me., Sept. 20.—Because his sweetheart had jilted him, Albert Whidam, aged 22, committed suicide yesterday noon by taking a dose of poison.

At a neighboring town he bought strychnine powder. Then, returning to his home in Pleasant street, he calmly ate his dinner, presumably swallowing the powder with his dessert. He immediately sought a couch and told his mother he was going to die.

"She's the cause of it," said he, speaking of a young woman who, it is said, recently rejected his attentions. He died a few moments before the physician arrived.

Whidam was formerly a stage hand at a local theatre, but had lately been employed in a grain store. He was a son of Clifford B. Whidam, and a member of American Hook and Ladder company.

TWO OF CREW MISSING

The Schooner Smith Arrives in Gloucester

GLoucester, Sept. 20.—The schooner Benjamin A. Smith, Capt. Christopher Gibbs, arrived yesterday from a shakedown trip with 100,000 pounds of salt fish.

She had her flag at half-mast for the loss of two of her crew, Thomas Joy and Andrew Peddie. The accident occurred Sept. 15 while the men were hauling their trawls on the western banks. A fog had closed down on the men before they could reach their vessel, and although Capt. Gibbs searched the locality for a couple of days, no trace of the men was discovered. There is a possibility that the men may have been picked up by some vessels fishing in that locality.

Both were unmarried, about 25 years old and came from the southwest coast of Newfoundland.

The schooner Aloha arrived yesterday from offshore with 230 barrels of salted mackerel and the crew report about all the seiners have secured partial fares. The dogfish and albacore are reported in great numbers and driving the fish offshore.

BODY FOUND IN ROAD

Man Probably Struck by an Auto

KINGSTON, Sept. 20. With his head and body badly bruised, as though he had been struck with great force, Joseph Gibbs, aged 46, employed by the town of Plympton as a stone mason, was found dead early yesterday in the middle of Wapping road, not far from his home.

His arms were folded across his breast and in his hands he held two pairs of new shoes. He was last seen about midnight, when he started to walk from Kingston Village to his home on Ring road.

The manner in which his body had been placed, exactly in the middle of the street, with his arms carefully folded, led to the belief that he was run down about midnight by an automobile, and that the occupants, when they discovered that the man was dead, had placed his body where it would be most quickly found.

The body was discovered at 5.30 by the driver of Blanchard's milk wagon, who notified John Miller, a nearby resident. The latter telephoned the Kingston police and an investigation was quickly started. Medical Examiner Hill ordered the body removed to a Plymouth undertaker's rooms, where he will perform an autopsy today.

Gibbs was long a resident of Kingston and was known by many people here. He is survived by a wife and seven children.

Four Members of Family and a Boarder Lost Their Lives in Fire at Millinocket, Me.

MILLINOCKET, Me., Sept. 30.—Four of the five members of a Poland family and a boarder lost their lives in a fire which destroyed their home today. The only one to be saved from the building was the three months' old daughter, who was rescued by Michael Crehan at the peril of his own life.

The victims were Anton Maranski, aged 45, his wife and two children, a boy aged four and a girl aged 15 months, and Joseph Dence, who boarded with them. The family moved here some time ago from Rumford Falls and the men worked in the paper mills.

An investigation was begun immediately by a coroner. An inquest was opened and adjourned until tomorrow forenoon. Joseph Baranowski and Frank Alex were detained by the officials as important witnesses.

Firemen who were first on the scene stated that they could have saved all the lives had they received the call five minutes earlier but when they arrived it was impossible to enter the burning residence. They deluged the building with water and when the ruins had been cooled sufficiently they began a search for the bodies of the inmates.

The father's remains were found downstairs. In a bedroom on the same floor a sickening sight met the gaze of the men. The bodies of the mother and two children were found in different positions about the room and were burned almost beyond recognition. The boarder's body, found in his room, was not badly burned owing to the amount of water thrown into the building. The rescue of the child was made by Michael Crehan, who arrived soon after the fire was discovered. He broke through a window and crawling along the floor, rescued the baby.

$3,500,000 WAS CONTRIBUTED

To the Republican Campaign Fund in 1896, According to Letter From Bliss

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The senate committee investigating campaign contributions revealed its work today, revealing that Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., of New York.

Mr. Bliss, a son of the late Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the republican campaign committee in 1896, could not tell the committee of the alleged $100,000 contribution by the Standard Oil Co. to Col. Roosevelt's fund of 1904, although he did put into the record a letter from Col. Roosevelt in the latter 1898 in which the colonel denied that funds had been accepted from any persons or interests who might ask favors from the administration.

C. H. Legthof, former private secretary to the late E. H. Harriman, was to have been the first witness. He failed to appear on time and the hour for resuming was postponed until three o'clock. The committee expects to learn if the Harriman estate has any documentary evidence of the raising of a $240,000 fund in 1904.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE AT A MASS

MEETING BY ELIZABETH GURLEY

FLYNN TODAY

WOMAN STRIKER ARRESTED IN COMMON STREET, LAWRENCE, FOR THROWING STONE AT A PATROLMAN EARLY THIS MORNING

LAWRENCE, Sept. 30.—The strikers will return to the mills tomorrow, according to an announcement made at the mass meeting by Elizabeth Gurley Flynn.

Serious rioting marked the beginning this morning of the 24 hours' general strike of Industrial Workers of the World as a protest against the imprisonment of Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, leaders of the organization, whose trial on a charge of murder began at Salem today. Of the 30,000 textile operatives employed in the mills of this city 12,000 were estimated to be idle by 9 a. m. Of this number 7000 were members of the Industrial Workers of the World, while the others had either remained away from the mills through fear of personal injury or had left because there was no work in their departments.

When the mills opened at 6.45 a. m. there were numerous conflicts between intending workers and pickets. Essex street, the main thoroughfare of the city through or across which thousands of operatives walk on their way to their work, was lined with the pickets of the Industrial Workers. Many were armed and a quantity of revolvers and knives were confiscated by the police. Some of these weapons were so new that the price tags had not been removed.

Many persons were hurt during the disturbances, but in most instances the injuries were not serious. One man who was knocked off a street car by a crowd of pickets was said to be in a serious condition at a hospital.

Although most of the trouble occurred at the mill opening time there were numerous minor outbreaks during the forenoon. Many of the rioters were arrested.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK
Railroad Tie Found on Main Line to Nashua

At Nashua just after midnight this morning, a freight train approaching the bridge by which the main line of the southern division of the Boston and Maine railroad crosses the Nashua river nosed from the tracks a switch tie which is double the length and much wider than an ordinary railroad sleeper. Yard men had discovered the big stick just previously and signaled the freight to stop and the engine was slowing down as it reached the obstruction. If the tie was placed on the track its weight must have required the efforts of two or three more men to do the trick. Railroad men say the timely discovery of the obstruction probably avoided a serious disaster.

MOULDERS' STRIKE

The Men Are Still Out and There is No Change in the Situation—Meeting Held Today

The moulders are still out, as no settlement between the strikers and the foundrymen has as yet been reached. The strikers held their usual daily meeting in the union rooms in Middle street this morning, and were addressed by the business agent and officers of the organization. The men are very confident that a settlement will soon be reached. Several of the foundrymen, however, report that orders for castings are rather light, and in the several of the foundries, the owners, with the assistance of boys are pouring all their orders on hand. They report that there is no change in the situation.

GOVERNOR MARSHALL
To Address Rally in This City Tonight

A grand democratic rally will be held this evening in Associate hall at 8 o'clock and a number of prominent speakers have been secured to address the gathering. This rally promises to be one of the biggest and most largely attended of the year. Among those who will be heard are Gov. Thomas Riley Marshall, of Indiana, democratic candidate for vice president, Gov. Eugene Foss, of Massachusetts, Judge Thomas P. Riley, chairman of the state committee, Humphrey O'Sullivan, democratic candidate for congress in the fifth district, Hon. David I. Walsh, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor and Hon. John F. Fitzgerald, mayor of Boston. James F. Miskella will preside over the gathering.

NO GENERAL STRIKE IN LOWELL

I. W. W. Official in Lawrence Says No Orders Have Been Issued to Workers in This City

(Special By a Sun Reporter)
LAWRENCE, Sept. 30.—It was reported in Lawrence this forenoon that a general meeting of the I. W. W. would be held in Lowell tomorrow as part of the plan for a general strike, but that statement was denied at I. W. W. Headquarters.

The I. W. W. in Lawrence has its headquarters in the Central building, 315 Essex street. Fred W. Heslewood is the man in charge and when The Sun reporter asked if there was any truth in the report that members of the I. W. W. in Lowell would hold a general meeting tomorrow, Mr. Heslewood said: "I do not know that any meeting has been called in Lowell. In fact we have not heard anything from Lowell."

"If a meeting in connection with the plans for a general strike was to be held in Lowell you would probably know something about it," said the reporter.

"I do not know that the I. W. W. has planned for a general strike and I think if plans were being laid for a meeting in Lowell I would know something about it," replied Mr. Heslewood.

ing when it comes to women, for the police declare that "The female of the species is more deadly than the male."

One little woman attacked an officer this morning and was giving him a busy time of it when a brother officer went to his assistance. She was arrested and arraigned on a complaint charging her with assaulting a police officer.

The Sun reporter talked with four women near the Washington mill gates this forenoon and asked them what they thought about the strike. They said they came out with the strikers because they were afraid to remain at work. One of the women said: "I had $500 in the bank when the last strike started in Lawrence and I haven't got a cent to my name now. They ought not to keep those two men in jail, but I don't think that this strike will do any good. I can get work in Lowell but my home is here and I do not want to go away if I can help it."

Statement by I. W. W.
The following statement, relative to the riot at the mill gates this morning was given out at the headquarters of the I. W. W. this afternoon:

Prisoners in Police Court
It wasn't a very easy matter to get into the police court in Lawrence this forenoon. The Sun's representative and all others whose names were not familiar to the officers had to answer questions and prove their identity. Mr. Heslewood from I. W. W. headquarters was seeking admittance when The Sun man arrived at the court house. Mr. Heslewood was refused admittance. He was told that there was no room for him, that the court was filled with prisoners, police officers and newspaper men. The prisoners were arraigned but their cases went over to this afternoon.

At least two of the prisoners looked as if they had assaulted four or five policemen and they all pleaded not guilty. Their names and the offenses with which they were charged were as follows: Gloria De Angelis, assault; Nicholas Gallore, disturbance; Julia Campbell, assault; Peter Flabba, assault; Mike Fresseo, assault; Thall Pasilio, assault; Nicholas Pichoreo, assault; Vernon Stralonia, assault; Sophia Champa, assault; Ellis Shizewski, disturbance; Isadore Ricard, disturbance; Pietro Mundry, disturbance and carrying dangerous weapon; Manuel Garcia, disturbance; Manuel Silva, disturbance.

Police Were on the Job
By efficient and consistent work the police officers won a decisive victory over the disturbances in the solid hour of general rioting that accompanied the "peaceful picketing" attempt during the morning. The strikers broke faith with the police yesterday and the order this morning was to "take the bull by the horns," so to speak. In conversation with The Sun's representative police officials said that they met the strikers more than half way yesterday and the strikers agreed to parade not before 1.30 o'clock and not later than 5.30. They also agreed to carry American flags instead of the red flag of the I. W. W. They did not live up to either one of these agreements and the police decided it was useless to try to come to any understanding with them.

I. W. W. Leaders Pleaded
In justice to the I. W. W. leaders it should be stated that they were in the thick of the disturbance and pleaded with the strikers to desist from interference. Absolutely no attention was paid them by the strikers. The newspapermen were somewhat wrought up over an unprovoked attack by the police upon newspaper camera men, resulting in the smashing of at least one camera and the endangering of the lives of several other artists. The incident occurred at the foot of Common street.

Women the Most Violent
The Lawrence police are with Kin-

Central Committee, Local 29, Industrial Workers of the World.

Two newspaper camera men were attacked by the police who did not want them to take the pictures of their fellow officers beating defenseless men. Men under arrest and being taken to the police station were clubbed while submitting quietly to their arrest.

We mention these few examples, out of a score and more of equally drastic acts, in substantiation of our claim from the first that the membership of this organization has been made the objective of a studied and consistent persecution by the police, who, according to the common report are dominated by the mill interests.

The situation in Lawrence is one that is strained to the utmost. The foreign population is wrought up over the continuous attacks and the continuous persecution.

Over one hundred detectives arrived in Lawrence last night. Their express purpose in this city is to create a demonstration to cast discredit upon our organization. We believe that these imported thugs started and led some of the Italian workers on the picket line this morning into attempting to check those from going into the mills who did not care to join the protest. These detectives are working for the mill men. Their occupation is to destroy, if possible, this organization and also to prejudice the trial of our members, Ettor, Giovannitti and Casuso. We deplore the acts and we regret that any of our men were led in attacks by these false hirelings.

WARNING AGAINST THE BOSSES

Issued by Governor Wilson Who Wants a Progressive for
Governor

SEAGIRT, N. J., Sept. 30.—Governor Wilson issued a statement last night calling upon the delegates to the New York state democratic convention at Syracuse next Tuesday to choose as candidate for governor "a progressive man of the kind to be his own master."

He likewise urged a progressive platform and declared that "it will not do for the choice of the convention at Syracuse to be any less than that which gave the third party Mr. Straus and the regular republican party Mr. Hedges."

It is not believed that anything more definite in the way of an expression of opinion will be forthcoming from the presidential nominee before the cause convention begins. It is regarded also as unlikely that he will express preference for any particular person, although his close friends at the convention will know what type of man an individual probably will prove acceptable to the presidential candidate.

Governor Wilson's statement, in full, follows:

"I have been looking forward to the Syracuse convention with the deepest interest because I realize its critical importance to the party throughout the nation and I have, mad, my own opinion with regard to it very plain to every friend from New York, who has done me the honor to consult me."

"I have not said anything in public about it or through the newspapers, because I wanted to avoid even the appearance of doing what I condemn in others, namely, trying to dictate what a great party organization should do, what candidates it should choose and what platforms it should adopt."

"But the very principle to which I hold myself bound, both in speech and in action, justifies me in saying that the whole country demands and expects that the democracy of New York be left absolutely free to make its own choice. I believe that it is ready to choose a progressive man of a kind to be his own master and to adopt a platform to which men of progressive principles everywhere can heartily subscribe, if only it be left free from personal control of any sort."

"The organized democrats of the great state of New York are ready to serve the nation and to serve it with intelligence. They need no direction from the governor of another state, even though he be the candidate of his party for the presidency."

"It is seldom organizations that are at fault, it is those who attempt to di-tate their action. No intelligent party leader can justly or wisely or even intelligently condemn or reject the open and honest organization by which alone parties can be held to concerted action, but he can and must do everything in his power to keep them free and un-bossed."

"The democracy of New York is at a critical turning point in its history. A whole country awaits its action at Syracuse with deep attention and concern."

"Democrats everywhere look to it to set an example and vindicate the fair play and discouragement very keenly if it should fall them and will be stirred by added hope and enthusiasm if it should accomplish what it expected of it."

"It will not do for the choice of the convention at Syracuse to be any less free than that which gave the third party Mr. Straus and the regular republican party Mr. Hedges."

EXPLOSION OF POWDER

Man Was Burned About
the Face

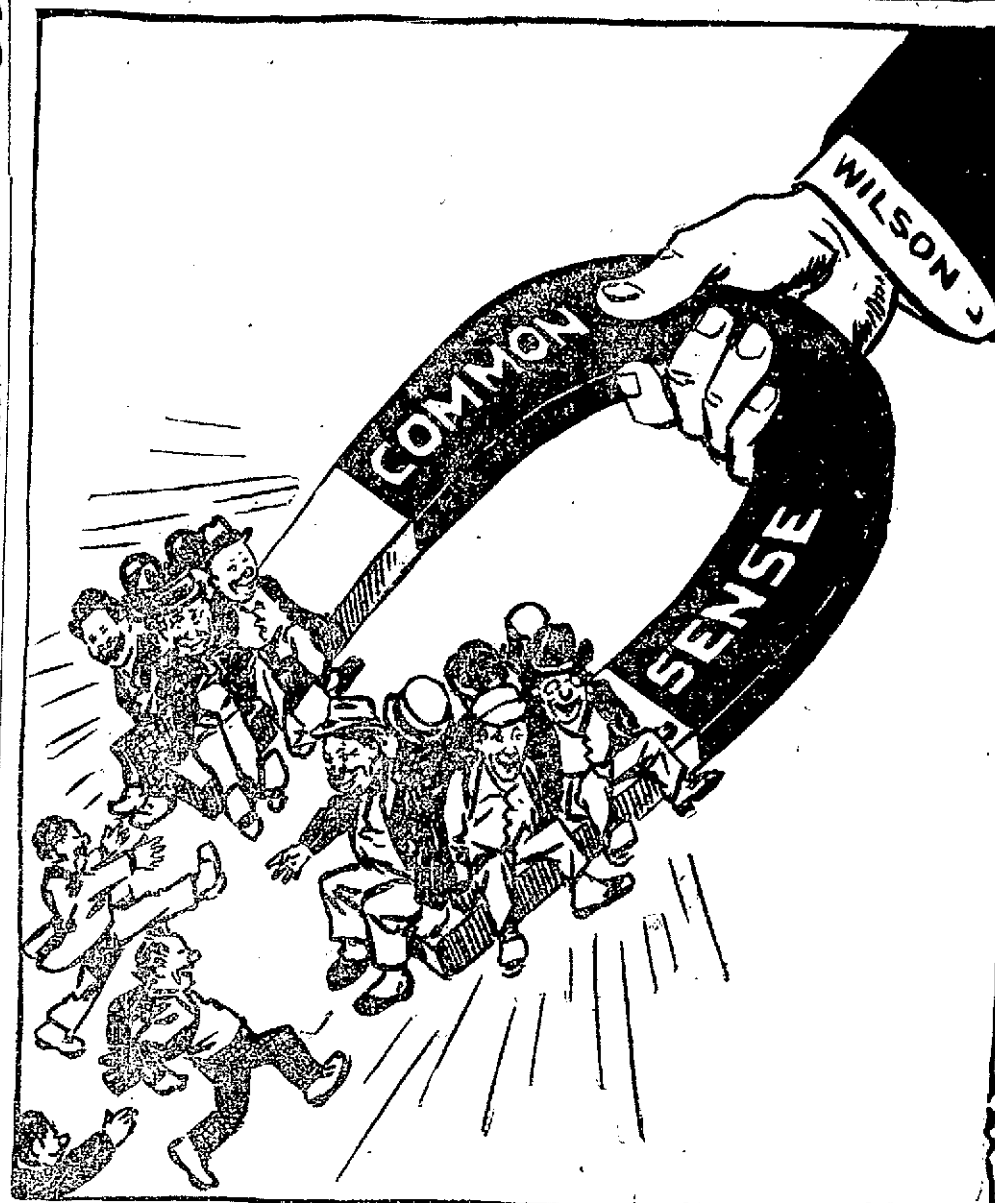

Elmer Olson, who resides at 49 War-nock street, was burned about the face Saturday as a result of the explosion of a blast of powder while clearing some land of stones. Mr. Olson recently purchased some land in West Tewksbury and Saturday started to clear out the rock by the use of blasting powder.

One of the blasts did not go off and going close to the spot where he had planted the powder he threw a lighted match at it and the charge went off and the flash burned his face.

Mr. Olson managed to go to his home and later was treated by Dr. George A. Leahy.

Fire in Celler

An alarm from box 131 at 4:39 o'clock yesterday afternoon summoned a portion of the fire department to a fire in the cellar of a house in the rear of 14 Howe street. The fire started in a pile of excelsior and burned through the partition and filled the house with smoke. The blaze, however, was extinguished before much damage was done.

THE NEW 54-HOUR LAW

Goes Into Effect in New York Tonight and it is Said Will Affect Over 375,000 People

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—More than 300,000 women and over 75,000 boys in New York city and state will be affected by a law which goes into effect at 12 o'clock tonight, limiting the work in factories to 54 hours a week. Of the total number concerned about one-half live and work in Greater New York.

The new law, which is an outgrowth of the agitation that followed the Triangle Shirtwaist fire, applies to every female, young or old, who works in a factory, and to every male factory worker under 18.

The new act provides that not more than one hour of overtime work shall be done in any one day, and unless paid as overtime a factory day for the classes named must not exceed 10 hours.

CHARLES L. CROWLEY,
President

The annual election of officers of the Manhattan Social club was held in the club rooms in Gorham street yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock with President Chas. L. Crowley in the chair. The president told of the occasion of the meeting and then reviewed the progress made by the organization during the year just closed. He spoke of the manner in which all the officers had performed their duties and thanked the members in behalf of all the officers for their assistance and co-operation in all undertakings during the year.

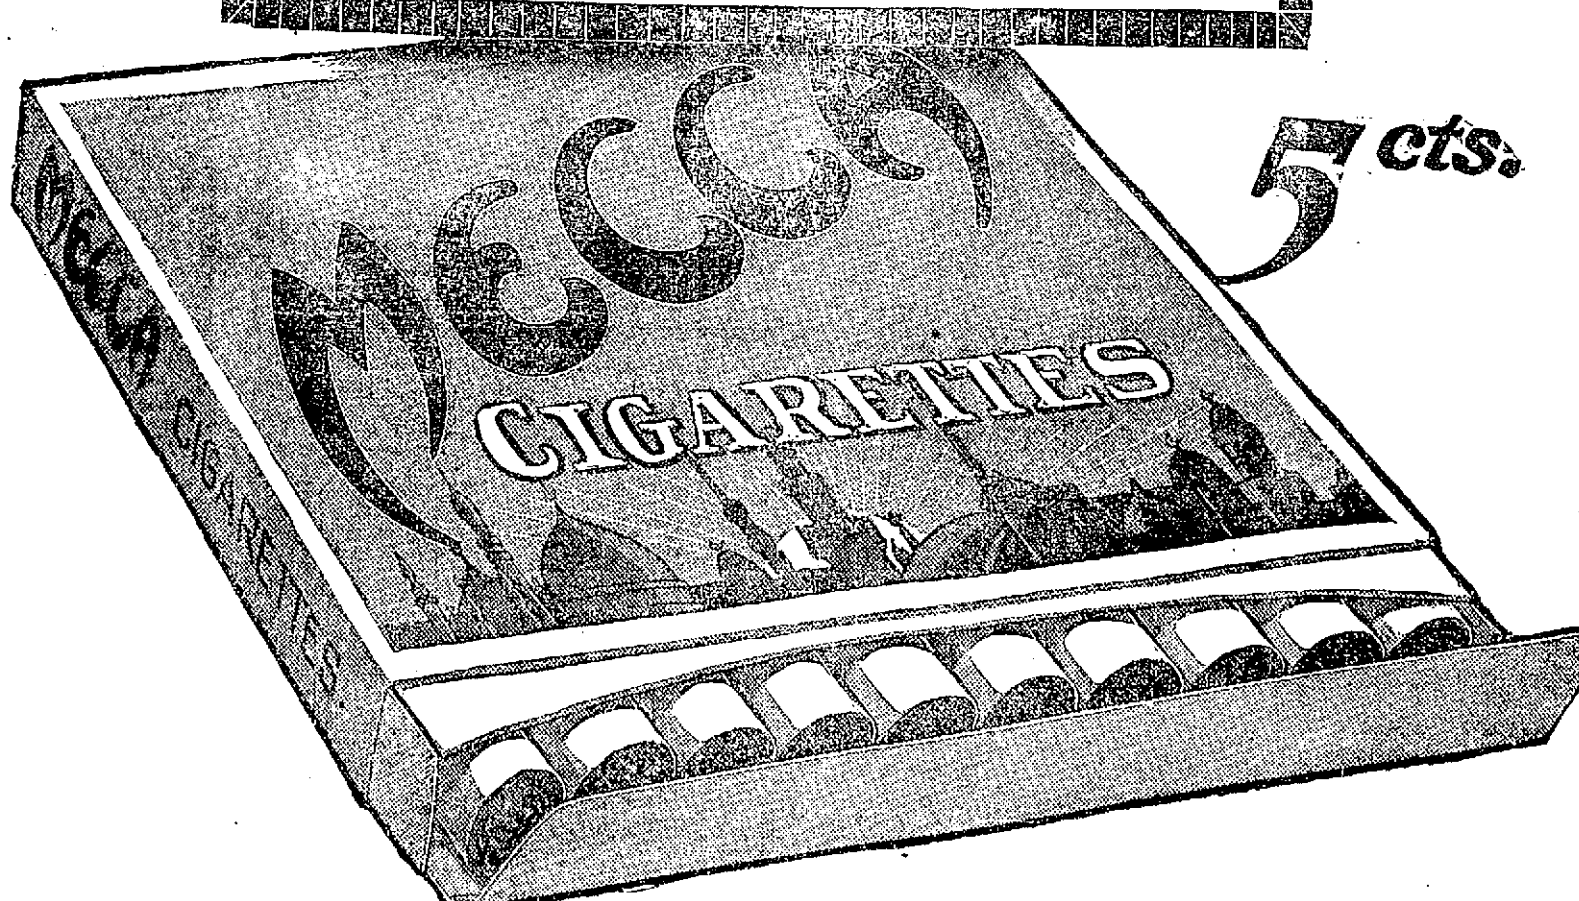

The nominating committee was then called upon, and the latter announced the following selections: President, Charles L. Crowley; vice president, Charles Emerson; treasurer, John Ready; recording secretary, Charles Fitzpatrick; financial secretary, Daniel McCarthy; board of directors, John Ward, Albert Olson, John Crowley, Thomas Spencer and Harry Jepson. These include the officers who were already in office and the secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the entire board and they were declared elected. The degree team then installed the officers and each spoke, thanking the members for honoring them with another term. A committee was appointed to arrange for a ladies' night to be given in the club rooms next month.

President Crowley then called for the entertainment committee to provide a program and the following was given: Song, Charles Fitzpatrick; song, "Look Out For the Man Who Owns an Automobile," John Ready; cornet solo, John Baxter; piano duet, Leo Crowley and Albert Olson; solo, John Crowley; recitation, "A Joy Ride," John Ward; selections, Manhattan club quartet, Frank Doherty, John Crowley, James Farrell and Albert Olson; remarks, Thomas Spencer; recitation, "How I Built the Chimney," Charles Emerson; vocal duet, James Mahan and Lawrence Considine; recitation, Fred Brady. The Manhattan orchestra furnished music during the concert.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY

Doctor Says He Can Re-
new Youth

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—A remarkable series of experiments, first conducted upon his aged mother, then upon himself and later upon 50 of his intimate friends, has enabled Dr. Frank R. Starkey of this city to discover an extract made from various ductless glands that will prolong life for a period of years and make old folks appear much younger.

In fact, it is really an elixir of youth that he has found, although he resents his polyglandular extract being given different names from Metchnikoff, the French scientist, the Philadelphia doctor has actually produced the results the scientist has aimed for and has living witnesses to attest the wonderful results.

Dr. Starkey has taken extracts from the pituitary gland in the base of the skull which influences the growth of the body, and when administered to children of stunted growth it is said to make them grow larger. He has extracts from the thyroid gland which influences the flesh and tissue development of the body and also from various reproductive glands.

The combination of these various extracts, Dr. Starkey has found, increases the cell reproduction, purifies the blood, gives added vitality to the nervous system, all of which is conducive to longevity. His first experiments were made a number of years ago upon his mother, who, although 70 years old, is as active and appears to be a woman of 60.

Although in age not yet at the half-century mark, the doctor spent years in research work abroad following his graduation in this city so diligently as to make him appear much older than he was. He began to inject his extract into his own body with most remarkable results. Although he is still a great and as diligent a student of science as ever, his face is tauter than two years ago, wrinkles and drawn look have disappeared.

In a paper recently read before the Medical society here, Dr. Starkey told of a number of unusual and obstinate cases of neurasthenia he had cured with the extract. He has also found it of benefit in typhoid fever, pneumonia, constipation and locomotor ataxia.

QUARTERBACK SNYDER OF LOWELL HIGH MAKING

TOUCHDOWN

The gridiron outfit of the Lowell high school made a fine display of strength and of the good results of the efficient direction of Coach Tom Mahoney when they dealt out defeat by a score of 20 to 0, to the representatives of Nashua high in a well played game Saturday afternoon at Washington park.

The entire tally of twenty points was accomplished during the first two periods, for although the local players several times threatened their opponents' goal in the second half, and kept the ball well into Nashua territory, nevertheless the visitors seemed to gain strength and concentration in the latter part and prevented Lowell from crossing the last white line.

The contest was entirely devoid of complicated trick plays and the teams employed only the simplest formations. With the possible exception of one or two cleverly executed forward passes, the principals of which were Cawley and Snyder, the biggest gains of the home team were made by means of the roughest kind of line plunges, and in these Captain Cawley was the terror of the Nashua line, for they seldom stopped him before he had subtracted at least five yards from the distance to the goal of his rivals. The visitors directed their attack almost without variation against the Lowell tackles, which form the strongest points in the line of the home team and time and again the Nashua backs were thrown for a loss in attempting to get by Cullen and McArthur.

The greatest source of delight and encouragement to the coach was the speed which his men exhibited. The ends, Carter and Trull, dashed to earth the hopes of the opposing half backs, on several occasions when they attempted to skirt the line. The visiting line were, however, weak both in offensive and defensive work, and as a consequence of this defect the ball was in the possession of the local aggregation during the greater part of the game. On one or two occasions they got away with short gains by means of the forward pass but these were executed only a few times.

Captain Cawley appeared to be enjoying himself immensely throughout the entire contest, never being his usual and seldom to perform the most difficult plays with the utmost ease. The manner in which he executed forward passes and the plunges through the opposing line were a real treat to those who witnessed the game. Snyder showed himself to be a head as well as a plucky and fast quarterback and it was with notable good judgment that he directed the play of his team. At the conclusion of the struggle he had one touchdown to his credit and also a 12-yard run which he accomplished after receiving a well placed forward pass from Cawley. Brundelle, who was enthusiastic on the eleven last season, contributed some brilliant plays, to the exhibition in his capacity as right half back. One of the three touchdowns was made by him on a beautiful line plunge in the first period.

Carter and Trull made two goals on conversions and was rubbed of the chance of trying for the third when the ball was kicked by Cawley was dropped. In the second half of the game, Captain Cawley made a beautiful attempt at a deep kick from the 40-yard line which sailed well into the air and missed the goal by a very narrow margin. The speed of the Lowell ends made it difficult for the visiting punter to get the ball away from his toe at all, and once the kick was neatly blocked.

All the scoring was done during the first sixteen minutes of play. In the first period the local team received the kickoff and Bailey carried the leather 100 yards before six minutes had elapsed, the ball was on the Nashua seven yard line and Brundelle tore through the line and placed it behind the goal for the first tally. The second score also came in the first period and was accomplished by Snyder on a 12-yard run through one side of the defense. At the end of the first period the score stood 12 to 0, for Carter had kicked but one goal, losing the other when Cawley's put out, was dropped. The third touchdown was made in the second period by Captain Cawley after two long gains on forward passes,

Cawley to Snyder. The second half of the contest was scoreless, for the visitors seemed to gain strength and began play with a pretty rally. The game ended with the score 20 to 0 in favor of Lowell. Lineup:

day devotions in honor of the Sacred Heart will be observed with masses at 5 and 7 o'clock and the Holy Hour service in the evening with special music.

Yesterday on the way to and from the services, the parishioners invariably stopped to view and admire the splendid new school building which is now nearing completion. Without exception everyone is pleased with the work and it will form an imposing addition to the architectural beauty which is so remarkable in that section of Germham street.

Immaculate Conception

Rev. Fr. Biehe preached at the 11 o'clock high mass at the church of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning on the gospel of the day.

It was announced at all the masses that the devotions of the holy rosary will take place at the church every evening this month except Saturday evenings and will consist of benediction and meditation of the mystery.

First Friday devotions will be observed with masses in the morning at 5, 6, 7 and 8 o'clock and holy hour services in the evening at 7, 8, 9 and 10 o'clock. Confessions will be heard Thursday afternoon and evening.

Sacred Heart

The choir is making elaborate preparations for its sacred concert which will take place in the church of the Sacred Heart on Sunday evening, Nov. 3. The concert will be given under the direction of Mr. John Kelly, the director of the choir and the choir leader.

Friday next before the first Friday of the month, the usual devotions will be observed at the church. Masses will be said at 5, 6, 7 and 8 o'clock Friday morning and the holy hour service will take place at 7, 8, 9 and 10 o'clock in the evening, consisting of the recitation of the rosary and benediction. Confessions will be heard Thursday afternoon and evening.

The members of the Catholic Young Men's League attended the 7 o'clock mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday, and received their quarterly communion. After gathering in the League rooms on Suffolk street, the members marched to the church, where they occupied seats in the center aisle. The mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Mr. William O'Brien, P. R. After mass a social service was held in the school hall, after which the regular business session of the society was held. The officers for the ensuing term, were elected with the following result: President, John T. McCormick, vice president, John Hildorn, financial secretary, John Murphy, recording secretary, Charles Flynn.

The reports of the several committees were of a most encouraging nature. Announcement was made that the basketball team for the season had started in practicing and expected to establish as clean a record as last season.

St. Peter's
Rev. John P. Burns celebrated the parish mass at St. Peter's church yesterday morning and Rev. Daniel J. Hoffmann preached a most instructive sermon, taking for his subject the devotion of the rosary. He urged a large attendance of the members of the parish at the October devotions for all stand in need of the graces which these devotions afford. He referred to the recitation of the rosary as a beautiful custom not only during the prescribed months, May and October, but every other day in the year as well. The musical program at St. Peter's yesterday was especially praiseworthy at the high mass and the solo parts were admirably rendered by Miss Mary E. Whiteley, Miss Gertrude E. Keleher, Vera Moody, Mr. James E. Donnelly and Mr. Frank J. Kane.

The musical program at St. Peter's yesterday was especially praiseworthy at the high mass and the solo parts were admirably rendered by Miss Mary E. Whiteley, Miss Gertrude E. Keleher, Vera Moody, Mr. James E. Donnelly and Mr. Frank J. Kane.

On next Friday the usual first Friday devotion will be observed at the church of the Immaculate Conception, with masses at 5, 6, 7 and 8 o'clock and holy hour at 7, 8, 9 and 10 o'clock in the evening. Devotions for the Holy Rosary will take place at the church every evening this month at 7, 8, 9 and 10 o'clock in the evening, consisting of the recitation of the rosary and benediction. Confessions will be heard Thursday afternoon and evening.

The Bunting Soccer Football Team Defeated
by Manchester Aggregation in Saturday's Game

START OF A PLAY AT THE SOCCER FOOTBALL GAME ON THE BUNTING CLUB GROUNDS

Although the score of 6 to 0 would seem to indicate that the soccer game Saturday in which the Bunting club United team was one-sided and uninteresting, nevertheless in this case the score is no trustworthy indication of the quality of the contest. The local team though outclassed by their opponents, nevertheless put up a plucky fight. They are still in a crippled condition through the loss of several of their best men because of illness and are showing an account of illness and is showing his old time fast work as a soccer artist. Clegg, too, was especially good in his position on the left wing.

The Manchester team is made up almost exclusively of old country players and together they make up a heavy eleven. The Bunting club team is exceptionally light and consequently speedy as it has always been the intention of Manager Flynn to have the club represented by a light, fast outfit. However in the case of a heavy wind, as was experienced last Saturday at the field, weight is a decided advantage and the light quality of the locals counted against them on that occasion. Anderson and Davis were the most prominent on the visiting team.

complete the repairs on the hall this season. Despite the downpour of rain yesterday, there was a large attendance at the Sunday school session. Rev. Fr. Schofield, the pastor, was present and watches carefully the children each Sunday so they will not remain away from their religious instructions.

St. Margaret's

October devotions of the holy rosary will be observed at St. Margaret's church every Wednesday and Friday evening this month with recitations of the rosary and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and with mass at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock each morning. The first Friday devotions will consist of masses at 6 and 7, 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning, and will be heard Thursday afternoon and evening.

Knights of Columbus

At a recent meeting of the committee in charge of the Columbus day observance it was decided to have the service on Saturday, Oct. 12, instead of postponing it until Sunday as the members at first planned to do. A sub-committee has been appointed to confer with the merchants of this city in regard to closing their stores on Columbus day and until some action is taken in this matter and some definite knowledge reported the exact time of the celebration cannot be set. The committee has gotten out a very attractive medal as a souvenir of the Columbus day observance. The medal is a three-cornered affair with a representation of Columbus on the obverse and the words "Columbus Day, Massachusetts, Oct. 12, 1912." The committee will hold a second meeting tomorrow evening at which all the sub-committees have been requested to make reports, especially those in charge of the entering and interviewing the merchants relative to closing their stores of business. The program has not been completed, but the observance will most likely comprise a parade to St. Peter's church in the morning when a mass will be sung and a sermon preached. There will be a banquet in the evening.

BOYS MAKE BREAKS

Henry Belliveau, aged 16 years, who is alleged to be one of the members of a gang of young men who have been breaking into residences throughout this city of late was arrested at his home in White street yesterday morning on a warrant charging him with breaking and entering and larceny in three counts. The arrest was made by Sgt. Ryan and Patrolmen Giggins and Whalen.

It is alleged that the boy entered the house of Carl Peterson in Maple street in company with two other boys and stole two watches, a pair of eye glasses and a revolver. As previously stated in The Sun the thieves gained an entrance by ripping off a screen and forcing a window.

After they had gone through the house they boarded a freight train and went to White River junction where they sold one of the watches which was valued at $40 for $4. They then went to Roxbury, Vt., and disposed of the other watch for $2.

It is said that Belliveau is a member of the gang that broke into the Nichols residence in Middlesex street with other young men and was also in the gang that entered the Johnson house in Middlesex Village.

After getting other figures on shingling your house, try Taylor Roofing Co. Do you want a few rolls of Ruber Roofing? Tel. 269, 119 Humphrey st.

THERE IS NO TROUBLE IN LOWELL

The Mill Operatives Reported
For Work as Usual This Morning

Contrary to the reports in circulation in this city yesterday that there would be trouble at the local mills this morning, all the operatives went to their work and there was no semblance of any disorder. Supt. Welch, however, was prepared for any emergency and had his officers ready to be sent to any section of the city.

About two hundred members of the I. W. W. in this city went to Lawrence yesterday, to participate in the parade there, and upon their return, rumor had it that they would arrive to go to their work here today, but the stories evidently had no foundation, for all went into the mills and continued to work during the day.

In the local party that went to Lawrence yesterday morning, there were a great many children, the latter wearing white dresses with red sashes, bearing the inscription "I. W. W." They returned in the evening, and while very enthusiastic, caused no trouble.

In conversation with several of the local mill men this morning, the writer learned that there was no disorder and all the operatives went to their work and continued at their machines, apparently contented.

One of the mill men said that he did not expect any trouble, saying that the real disturbers are no longer connected with his mill, and that all his employees are now people who are satisfied with the prevailing conditions. He said that during the last trouble he went to the strikers and informed them that if they went out they would not be taken back.

They ignored his ultimatum, but have since regretted their action, he said. They were not reinstated, and the mill man said that the other employees, who were always law abiding, but were dictated to by the self-elected labor leaders, are now getting along without any fears or trouble.

Other mill men said that their help were satisfied with conditions and no trouble was anticipated. One said that a great many of his employees, who were connected with labor organizations during the last controversy, are no longer members and are now opposed to the teachings of some of the leaders, to whom they heretofore paid considerable attention.

Business in the local mills at the present time is very good, all working full time while several are running overtime. The outlook for the winter is very good, and all are sufficiently supplied with orders to continue through the cold months.

The Appleton mill is progressing and it is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by the first of the year. The new building extends from the Appleton to the Hamilton, four stories high and is of brick construction. When finished new machinery will be installed.

Independent Chinese Loan

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The issue of the independent Chinese loan last week was a failure as far as the public was concerned. Only about 10 per cent. of the $2,500,000 was subscribed for by the general public so that the underwriters had to take up the balance of 60 per cent.

TODAY'S STOCK MARKET

As to Buying in Boston

There is less reason for buying Furniture in Boston now than ever before. A. E. O'Heir & Co.'s New Furniture Store offers a sufficient variety, and all of the latest designs, and at 25 to 40 per cent. less than you would have to pay in Boston for the same article. Except when they advertise a "Wonderful, Exceptional, Extraordinary Mark Down Sale," then and only then will you buy as cheap as you buy in Lowell at any time.

NOW MARK

We are not charging Boston merchants with wilful deceit. They do have mark downs, but marked down from "Boston" prices, not Lowell prices. They actually believe they are selling cheap, and from their standard of profits and from their immense cost of doing business, they are. But it costs so much less to do business in Lowell or any smaller city that Lowell merchants sell a great deal cheaper and make as much. Any Socialist and student of political economy knows that. Herbert Spencer, Henry George and many others have demonstrated the fact. Take the item of rent, for instance. In a recent conversation with one who knows who visited our new store lately, he said: "Our store is not any larger than this, and we pay Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000) a year rent." Our interest, taxes, insurance, etc., does not cost us Eighteen Hundred (1800) a year. How in the world do you expect that they can sell as cheap in Boston? And there is a proportionate difference in different locations in this city. We could not duplicate as large or as well equipped a store as we have here farther down town for less than eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000). In other words, we can sell Sixty Thousand Dollars' (60,000) worth of Furniture and Carpeting a year for ten per cent. less and make just as much ourselves. Now, if you are wise, you will walk a few steps out of your way and save money by buying at

$3,500,000 WAS CONTRIBUTED

Continued

Mr. Bliss was asked to read his father's letter of resignation as campaign treasurer, to Harry New, the national chairman, which had been placed in evidence.

The letter set forth that the late Mr. Bliss had held as confidential the names of contributors and the amount of their contributions in the "last four presidential campaigns in which I have acted as treasurer."

"I have personally refused to make these reports public," the letter read, "but I regard the relations of campaign contributors to party committees as confidential. I believe the right to refuse to make public these contributions is as sacred as the right of a man to cast a secret ballot in an election."

The letter added that the aggregate of campaign receipts in 1900 had been a little below $3,000,000, in 1904 $3,500,000 and in 1908 $3,600,000.

The witness said he had discovered three other letters of a personal and more or less intimate nature. These he handed to Chairman Clapp. One was from President Roosevelt and another from W. H. Taft, as secretary of war.

The committee suspended its inquiry for a few minutes while the members read the letters privately.

Senator Clapp had the letters placed in the record as exhibits. They were not read aloud and their contents were not divulged at the time. Mr. Bliss said he had no other documents and no recollection of any conversations with his father which would throw any light on the subject under investigation.

Later, however, the contents of two of the letters became known. That from Secretary Taft, written May 6, 1904, urged the late Mr. Bliss to take the chairmanship, saying President Roosevelt was most anxious for it and adding that as chairman Mr. Bliss would secure the confidence of those from whom contributions may be expected.

The letter from President Roosevelt, dated the same, also urged him to take the place. The witness said that his father had told him he allowed the books of the treasurer's office of the republican national committee to be destroyed because he, the elder Bliss, believed the records useless. They contained, he said, the names and amounts from various contributors. The witness did not know who destroyed them.

The witness could not remember having talked with his father about the much discussed $100,000 Standard Oil Co. contribution. Mr. Bliss said that since his father's death had destroyed a great many papers left by the elder Bliss.

"I know of nothing that I destroyed that could in any way assist this committee," he declared emphatically. A vigorous cross-examination by Senator Pomeroy failed to shake his statement. He then was excused and William H. Libby of New York, foreign representative of the Standard Oil Co. was sworn.

Chairman Clapp asked Mr. Libby if he had anything to do with advising the company about legislative affairs. "Only as to tariff matters, when it was threatened to exempt the Standard Oil Co. from the protective tariff," replied Mr. Libby.

"The campaign of 1908 foreshadowed a tariff revision," suggested Senator Clapp, "what interest did your company take in that campaign?"

"Nothing that I know of in the way of contributions," said Mr. Libby.

"I was informed by Mr. H. H. Rogers that in 1904 the Standard Oil Co. made a very large contribution to the republican national campaign fund. He added he knew nothing personal about it. He had not been told the amount, he said, when, by whom, or to whom it was made. He knew of no contribution other than that he heard mentioned by Mr. Rogers."

"Did you see any member of congress on the tariff matter?" asked Senator Pomeroy.

Mr. Libby could not remember what public officials he had talked with, but thought probably he had discussed it with President Taft and officials of the state department. He said he would produce any letters written in that connection if he could find them.

"Did any of these letters concern campaign contributions?" asked Senator Pomeroy.

He was excused.

After a brief executive session the committee took a recess until 2 p. m.

CALL MONEY ROSE

IT REACHED THE YEAR'S PRICE THIS AFTERNOON

Stocks Were Heavily Sold At Market

Recessions—Representative Issues Were Forced Below Last Week's Final Figures

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Heaviness in the leaders, including Steel, Amalgamated and Union Pacific, was the noteworthy feature of today's stock market at the opening. This was offset in a measure by substantial gains in several specialties including Pacific Mail, Woolworth and Lucknow. Steel, the latter advancing three points. The list recovered from its initial heaviness before the end of the first hour with especial strength in the coalers and other representative issues. Various conflicting conditions combined to give an irregular tone to today's market. London's final quotations for our stocks were mostly lower and this was followed by heavy selling for London account after the opening. The list wavered under the impact of these movements but soon recovered. Steel crossing 50, at which price it met with earnest resistance. Another setback and marked diminution of operations occurred with the opening of money at six per cent, the rate advancing to six and a half. Steel went higher during the noon hour in the face of heavy offerings. The list in general manifested a confident undertone from which the heavy foreign gold engagements were doubtless largely responsible. Prices showed somewhat and trading fell off in the late afternoon, when call money went to seven per cent. The market closed heavy. Call money rose to the year's price, 7 1/2 per cent, in the last hour and stocks were heavily sold at marked recessions. The reaction wiped the early rise and most representative issues were forced below last week's final figures.

WILSON'S STRENGTH GROWING.

As the campaign progresses there is growing evidence that Governor Wilson is steadily becoming stronger as a candidate. His popularity is increasing as the people learn more about him and hear him explain the issues of the campaign and what the three parties stand for.

With the split in the republican party neither of the wings is making much impression. Had there been no split the return of the republican party to power would be hardly impossible in view of its record of opposition to the masses and its alliance with the trusts of the country. But whatever chance of success the republican party might have had before disruption, in its present aspect as the lesser part of the whole it cannot hope for victory.

On the other hand, the Bull Moose party with Roosevelt at its head is a delusion and a snare. If anybody asks why, we shall simply answer—Roosevelt. That is enough but there is more. The platform offers no relief on the tariff but it does offer a number of revolutionary changes in the constitution that would establish mob rule and make the people the final arbiters on supreme court decisions.

The attitude of Governor Wilson upon the tariff and all the other issues is acceptable to such an overwhelming majority of the people that his election is a foregone conclusion.

Moreover Wilson's strength comes largely from the fact that he has a party behind him that can be relied upon to force popular reforms through congress. This party stands for popular rule that will eliminate the special favors which enable the trusts and combines to impose upon the masses by the usurpation of the instrumentalities of government and by various kinds of outrageous extortion. The democratic platform provides for the proper regulation of the tariff so that the trusts and monopolies will be deprived of their power and that the masses will be enabled to derive a greater share of the wealth they produce in return for their labor.

Wilson will be the next president of the United States unless party sentiment undergoes a radical change, of which, we believe, there is not the slightest danger.

The present hopeful outlook should therefore inspire the masses with enthusiasm as the hour of their deliverance from trust oppression and exploitation is at hand.

Wilson and Marshall will sweep the country and Taft, the leader of a lost cause, and Roosevelt, the swash-buckler demagogue and mountebank, will be retired to private life. So far as Roosevelt is concerned that will be a great relief. The country under Wilson and Marshall will start upon a new era of success. It is the anticipation of that success that is now inspiring such confidence as has rarely been experienced at the approach of a national election. Democrats should therefore bestir themselves so as to make the victory as emphatic and as sweeping as possible for it will mark an important epoch in this country's history.

THE I. W. W. STRIKE

The proposition for a general two-day strike of the I. W. W. is intended as a demonstration of the power of the organization. After the two-day strike, if this be successful, will doubtless come an order for a ten-day strike or one for a longer period. The general strike is the weapon with which the leaders hope ultimately to be able to paralyze all industry at will in this country. It is the great panacea urged by Haywood and his followers. It may prevail in Lawrence, but it cannot accomplish much in this city. The operatives of the local mills, or at least 90 per cent. of them, are intelligent and reasonable people who are not willing to be a party to any such radical action as the general strike to show the prestige of any leader.

What does this two-day strike mean? It means that so far as the organization can exert its power or influence it will do so to injure manufacturing concerns with which it has never had any conflict.

Lowell is to be congratulated upon the fact that the orders of the I. W. W. will have little effect in this city. The local members have been trying to keep up a strike in the Appleton mill but without success. The prospect is that the organization will never exercise a controlling influence with the operatives of this city. If it appears that the members cannot be relied upon to work steadily the mills would be justified in refusing to hire them. People who are always trying to work up strikes are the least desirable for any mill or any city. When manufacturing concerns are looking for suitable locations, one of the first things they inquire about is, whether the place is free from labor trouble. If not, then it is passed without further consideration. That is what industrial disturbers do to a city. There are occasions when strikes are justified and should be supported, but this general strike advocated by the I. W. W. is intended as the first step to a revolution, and should be firmly opposed by all the friends of justice, progress and civil liberty.

NEW YORK SUN POLL SHOWS WILSON A LEADER

The New York Sun poll, a special poll of four election districts in New York on the triangular contest in which Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft were voted for as the heads of their respective parties. The result is as follows:

Four Election Districts				Vote of Same Districts in 1908
E.D. A.D.	Wilson	Roosevelt	Taft	E.D. A.D.	Taft	Bryan	Hisgen
24	23	167	31	104	24	23	167
21	35	118	29	46	24	35	118
5	6	213	21	49	5	6	213
13	7	26	25	25	13	7	26
Totals				Totals
Wilson's majority, 163.				Taft's majority, 304.
Wilson's plurality over T. R., 287.				Taft's plurality over Bryan, 332.

Our New York contemporary is candid enough to admit that Wilson is likely to poll more votes than the combined vote of the other two candidates. The districts thus polled were strongly republican as the vote of 1908 shows. The change comes from the fact that the republican party at the present time is utterly demoralized as a result of the two factions fighting each other. Roosevelt does not expect to be elected. He will be satisfied if he can defeat Taft and smash the republican party. The same proportion as shown above would probably hold good throughout the country.

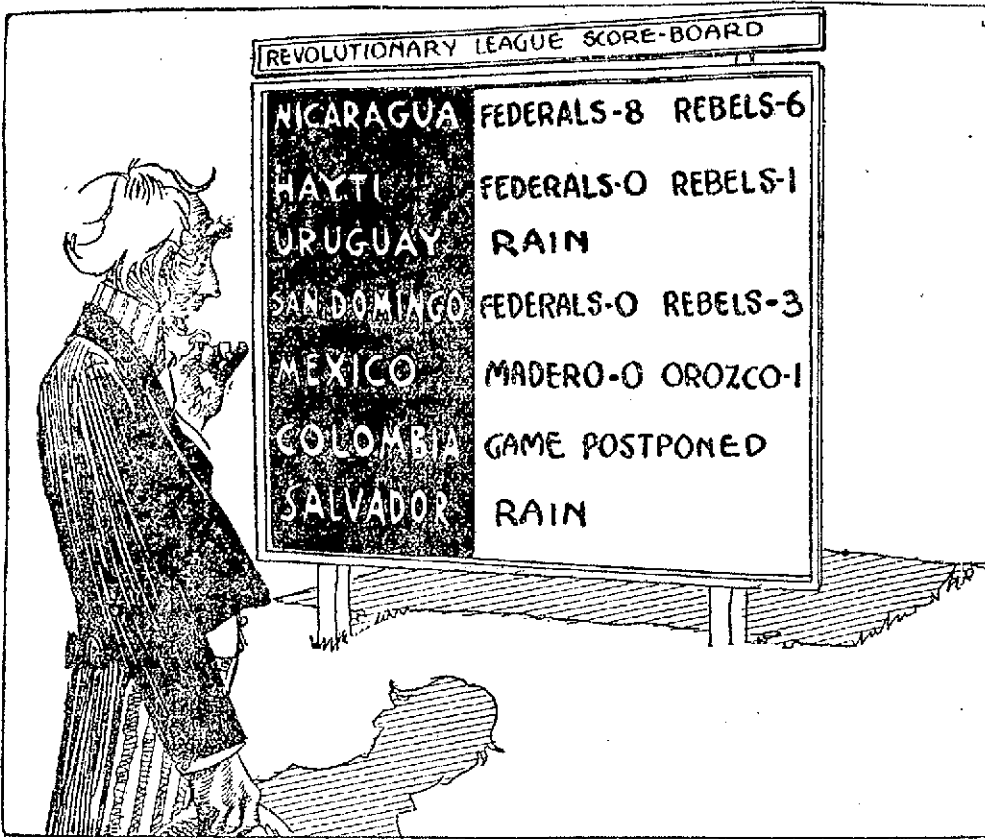

PURE FOOD LAWS

Very eminent scientists of professional standing are now coming out with statements to prove that the poison known as benzene of soda is harmless when taken into the stomach with other food, and that Dr. Wiley in preventing its use in the preservation of food was opposed to the public interest. Dr. Wiley, however, held that the drug was used mainly to disguise the impurities of food that had become unfit for use by fermentation or decay, and that it thus enabled dealers and canning concerns to impose injurious articles of food upon the country.

TONIGHT'S RALLY

Every democrat in Lowell should hear Governor Marshall of Indiana at Associate hall tonight. It will be a real treat to hear him as he is one of the best campaign speakers in the country. Republicans, too, will benefit by listening to his exposure of the wrongs imposed upon the people by the republican party.

If we are to judge from the noise that appears in the New York police graft cases, it would seem that the popular delusion that the New York police are practically all Irishmen has been effectually exploded. There is not a single individual of that nationality among the accused.

WATCHING THE SCORE-BOARD

Seen and Heard

If you are in love with two girls and don't know which to marry, the way to find out is to marry either and you will soon discover it is the wrong one.

It is not unusual for a chap to get all broken up over a girl, but there are some girls who can break a fellow quicker than others.

It is hardly fair to say a man owes everything to his wife, when he has unpaid poker debts.

Luck in fishing does not depend so much on the number of fish you actually catch as the number your friends believe you caught.

It is the other fellow's love letters which always sound foolish.

When you determine to stand on your dignity, be certain it is firm, otherwise you may put your foot in it.

One-half of the world does not know how the other half manages to own automobiles.

A life sentence is not so hard if punctuated with vacation periods.

There is a difference between having a way of your own and your own way.

A girl that does not paint is not necessarily artless.

There is many a family tree ashamed of its fruit.

It is difficult to tell which is the more serious, getting married, or remaining single.

Barking for a side show is a dog's life.

Doctors are the most liberal men in the world, they are always treating.

Stand up for yourself or you are apt to be sat upon.

I would that all men with whiskers could see themselves as others do when they eat soup.

There is no person a gossip hates so much as the one who tells of his own misdeeds before the gossip has a chance.

How is it that we are interested most in things that are none of our business?

HITCHIN' 'EM UP

The marriage microbe is a bird that's hard to understand. The short man always asks the tall skyscraper for her hand. The man who's six feet in his socks will be a top good and all. Some maiden who is passing fair, but only four feet tall. The brilliant girl who takes the prize and outshines all the school, is more than apt to cast her fate in marriage with a fool. The learned man who knows his books and has a sober mind. Most likely weds the dizziest damsel he can find. The prettiest girl of all the girls will wed some cross-eyed gink.

Who doesn't look as though he knew even enough to think.

The handsy girl most likely hooks the handsome millionaire.

The frivolous maid weds a man who's loaded down with care.

The plump girl is apt to draw some old night-prowl skate.

Who doesn't think that a o'clock is anywhere near late.

The pastor of the church may draw a social butterfly.

Who thinks more of her fall hat than of her husband up on high.

The more you try to solve the thing the less you really know.

Philosophers all gave it up some centuries ago.

The mystery is fathomless as much now as of yore.

It's only human nature, pure and simple, nothing more.

When the Bible was translated into Japanese an equivalent to the word "happy" could not be found, and the word "sank" had to be used instead.

So that Japanese Biblical students are acquainted with a person named "John the Sanker" and with a doctrine of "sinking for remission of sins."

Mr. Wrenner—Suppose we call on those people in the rooms on the other side of the hall.

Mrs. Wrenner (who has been listening)—We can't do it now; they're eating their dinner. They have just finished the soup and begun on the celery.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

For the Late Dr. John Jay Colton Held at Pawtucket Church Last Night and Largely Attended

The service in the chapel of the Pawtucket church was largely attended last night and was a memorial to the late Dr. John Jay Colton. In the course of the service a number of those who had known and loved him spoke of his life and work, and some of his favorite hymns were sung.

Those who spoke were Mr. Sidney R. Fleet, Mr. C. A. Richardson, Miss E. C. Colburn, Deacon E. W. Burnham of the Kirk Street church, Deacon A. M. Hoer and Rev. E. G. Alger, the latter speaking briefly on the doctor's influence for good in the church and community.

CHAUFFEUR SURRENDERS

He is Charged With Manslaughter

HAVERHILL, Sept. 20.—Geo. Hull of West Newbury surrendered and was admitted to $1000 bail yesterday for a hearing in the district court today on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of William Knowles of Rocks Village Saturday evening after being struck by an automobile owned and operated by Hull, on the state highway near Haverhill.

Knowles, with Matthew Donegan, also of Rocks Village, was coming to this city and they were walking the highway near the street car track. There is a sharp curve in the road near Carrs Hill and on hearing a noise the two men, thinking that an electric car was approaching, started toward the north side of the roadway.

Donegan says that when he saw it was an auto and not an electric car that was approaching he turned back toward the electric car tracks, but the machine struck Knowles, blinding him between the mudguard and the hood, and as he fell forward when the machine was being stopped the auto passed over him. The injured man was picked up and taken to a house nearby, where he died in half an hour.

Donegan and Hull both say the accident was unavoidable.

YOUNG MAN TOOK POISON

Because He Was Jilted by Girl

ROCKLAND, Me., Sept. 20.—Because his sweetheart had jilted him, Albert Witham, aged 22, committed suicide yesterday noon by taking a dose of poison.

At a neighboring town he bought strychnine powder. Then, returning to his home in Pleasant street, he calmly ate his dinner, presumably swallowing the powder with his dessert. He immediately sought a couch and told his mother he was going to die.

"She's the cause of it," said he, speaking of a young woman who, it is said, recently rejected his attentions. He died a few moments before the physician arrived.

Witham was formerly a stage hand at a local theatre, but had lately been employed in a grain store. He was a son of Clifford B. Witham and a member of American Hook and Ladder company.

TWO OF CREW MISSING

The Schooner Smith Arrives in Gloucester

GLOUCESTER, Sept. 20.—The schooner Benjamin A. Smith, Capt. Christopher Gibbs, arrived yesterday from a shacking trip with 100,000 pounds of salt fish.

She had her flag at half-mast for the loss of two of her crew, Thomas Joy and Andrew Peddie. The accident occurred Sept. 15, while the men were hauling their trawls on the western banks. A fog had closed down on the men before they could reach their vessel, and although Capt. Gibbs searched the locality for a couple of days, no trace of the men was discovered. There is a possibility that the men may have been picked up by some vessels fishing in that locality.

Both were unmarried, about 25 years old and came from the southwest coast of Newfoundland.

The schooner Aloha arrived yesterday from offshore with 230 barrels of salted mackerel and the crew report about all the seiners have secured partial fares. The dogfish and albacores are reported in great numbers and driving the fish offshore.

BODY FOUND IN ROAD

Man Probably Struck by an Auto

KINGSTON, Sept. 20.—With his head and body badly bruised, as though he had been struck with great force, Joseph Chubb, aged 46, employed by the town of Plympton as a stone mason, was found dead early yesterday in the middle of Wapping road, not far from his home.

His arms were folded across his breast and in his hands he held two pairs of new shoes. He was last seen about midnight, when he started to walk from Kingston Village to his home on Ring road.

The manner in which his body had been placed, exactly in the middle of the street, with his arms carefully folded, led to the belief that he was run down about midnight by an automobile, and that the occupants, when they discovered that the man was dead, had placed his body where it would be most quickly found.

The body was discovered at 5.30 by the driver of Blanchard's milk wagon, who notified John Miller, a nearby resident. The latter telephoned the Kingston police and an investigation was quickly started. Medical Examiner Hill ordered the body removed to a Plymouth undertaker's rooms, where he will perform an autopsy today.

Chubb was long a resident of Kingston and was known by many people here. He is survived by a wife and seven children.
